Women & Peacebuilding:

LESSONS FROM POST-GENOCIDE RWANDA

TALK PRESENTED BY DR. JENNIE E. BURNET

In the aftermath of the 1994 genocide, Rwandan women faced the impossible—resurrecting their lives amidst unthinkable devastation in a society torn by genocide. Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork in Rwanda over the past 18 years, anthropologist Jennie Burnet explores the lessons learned from women's roles in peacebuilding in Rwanda.

FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 2015
