

WALTER K. AND FRANCES M. SMITH MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

University of Louisville

The College of Arts and Sciences
Announces the 2022-2023 Walter K. and Frances M. Smith
Memorial Scholarship Family Scholarship

APPLICATION DEADLINE: MARCH 25, 2022

The University of Louisville College of Arts and Sciences announces the Walter K. & Frances M. Smith Scholarship Fund. Walter Smith was self-driven goal-oriented leader. His dedication and work ethic were fashioned by the many hardships and challenges he faced as a child. During his adolescent years he was raised in a German Orphanage due to the lack of financial resources afforded a single mother during the depression. He worked many jobs throughout the years to pay his way through college and ultimately received his undergraduate degree through the College of Arts and Sciences. He was always willing to offer a helping hand for anyone that showed the willingness to work hard toward a goal. His intentions were to offer help to an undergraduate student majoring in English at the University of Louisville. Preference will be given to those who can best demonstrate the hardships they have encountered and what drives their passion towards their goal.

The minimum award is $ 1,000.00

To be eligible for a Walter K. & Frances M. Smith Scholarship, a student must be a full-time undergraduate student majoring in English and must have demonstrated financial need as certified by the University of Louisville's Office of Financial Aid. A financial aid application for academic year 2022-2023 must be on file with the Office of Financial Aid by March 15.

An undergraduate student may apply by submitting a personal statement (maximum length 3 pages) describing his/her financial need and how his/her academic work and extracurricular activities relate to their ultimate goal. A copy of an unofficial transcript and two letters of recommendation should accompany the application. One recommendation must come from a member of the faculty or staff of the University. A completed application form should be attached to the student's letter. Electronic applications preferred, and incomplete applications will not be considered.

Deadline for applications is March 25, 2022. Application materials and letters of recommendation should be sent to asawards@louisville.edu.
