KEN TERRILL MEMORIAL AWARD 2021-2022

APPLICATION DEADLINE: March 19, 2021

The University of Louisville College of Arts and Sciences announces the 2021-2022 Ken Terrill Memorial Award. The award will be made to help defray the college expenses of a U of L undergraduate student who has demonstrated leadership in or service to the LGBTQ+ community of U of L or the greater Louisville metropolitan area.

Ken Terrill, an Associate Professor of Theatre Arts at the University for seventeen years, was a long-time advocate for gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender students. He was a faculty advisor for the Gay, Lesbian, or Bisexual Alliance (GLOBAL) from its inception until his death in March of 1994. KT's family and friends endowed the award as a lasting tribute to his commitment to students and the LGBTQ+ community.

The minimum award is $500.

Undergraduate students may apply by submitting a letter (maximum length 3 pages) discussing their leadership and service in the LGBTQ+ community. A copy of an unofficial transcript and two letters of recommendation should accompany the application. One recommendation must come from a member of the faculty or staff of the University. A completed application form should be attached to the student's letter. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Deadline for applications is March 19, 2021. Applications and letters of recommendation should be sent to asawards@louisville.edu. Application forms are available at <http://louisville.edu/artsandsciences/students/scholarships>.

Awards will be announced in early May.
