CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

RACHEL DAVIS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP 2021-2022

APPLICATION DEADLINE: March 19, 2021

The University of Louisville College of Arts and Sciences announces the 2021-2022 Rachel Davis Memorial Scholarship. The Davis Scholarship helps undergraduate students majoring in geology, biology, chemistry, microbiology, or physics at the University of Louisville. Preference will be given to those who demonstrate environmental stewardship in extracurricular activities.

The minimum award is $500.

To be eligible for a Davis Scholarship, a student must be a full-time undergraduate student majoring in one of the disciplines indicated above and must have demonstrated financial need as certified by the University of Louisville's Office of Financial Aid. A financial aid application for academic year 2021-2022 must be on file with the Office of Financial Aid by March 15.

An undergraduate student may apply by submitting a letter (maximum length 3 pages) describing his/her financial need and how his/her academic work and extracurricular activities relate to STEM and/or environmental stewardship. A copy of an unofficial transcript and two letters of recommendation should accompany the application. One recommendation must come from a member of the faculty or staff of the University. A completed application form should be attached to the student's letter. Electronic applications will not be accepted and incomplete applications will not be considered.

Deadline for applications is March 19, 2021. Applications and letters of recommendation should be sent to asawards@louisville.edu. Application forms are available at http://louisville.edu/artsandsciences/student.

Awards will be announced in early May.
