

You're invited...

VOICES OF THE REVOLUTION

Closing Reception

Tuesday, December 11th, 6-7pm

Chao Auditorium, Ekstrom Library, University of Louisville

Brief remarks from: UofL Associate Professor of History, Dr. Yuxin Ma;
Center for Asian Democracy Scholar-in-residence, Dr. Daniel Tauss
Asia Institute—Crane House Exhibits and Programs Coordinator, David Harryman

Wine and light refreshments will be served.

Voices of the Revolution:

An Art & History exhibit in Ekstrom Library,

November 7-December 15th

This exhibit, sponsored by UofL's Center for Asian Democracy and Louisville's Asia Institute - Crane House, features 13 posters from the latter half of the Cultural Revolution, produced by the Chinese Communist Party and influenced by Mao Zedong's call for a fusion of revolutionary realism and revolutionary romanticism.

UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE®

CENTER FOR ASIAN
DEMOCRACY

asia institute
CRANE HOUSE