

7th Annual Anne Braden Memorial Lecture:

“Why the Past Won’t Go Away: The Crisis of History in the Age of Post-Racialism”

Dr. Khalil Gibran Muhammad

Wednesday, Nov. 20, 2013, 5:30 pm

Student Activities Center Multipurpose Room

What does it mean when history as a discipline is under attack at a time when we have a black president and murders of unarmed black teens? Schomburg Center director and author Dr. Khalil Muhammad breaks down how knowing the past directly relates to understanding the present race-related crises.

UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE

ANNE BRADEN INSTITUTE FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE RESEARCH

PROJECT PROGRESS

Speaker: Dr. Khalil Gibran Muhammad, author, The Condemnation of Blackness: Race, Crime and the Making of Modern Urban America.