Marianne,

I am writing to follow-up to confirm our discussion this morning in which you agreed to allow Glenn Springs Holdings, Inc., on behalf of Occidental Chemical Corporation, to respond to EPA's September 9, 2011 letter relating to the above site on or before Friday, October 28, 2011. Should you have any questions or if your understanding differs from mine, I can be reached on my office phone at 972-687-7515.

Respectfully,

Stephen Fitzgerald

Stephen,

Thank you for your message and email. ExxonMobil, another PRP at the Site similarly requested a 30-day extension. I will provide you with the same courtesy and response.

After conferring with my client, we can provide an extension for Information Request responses until October 25, 2011. This provides your company with an additional two weeks to respond. If any further extension is needed, we can have a call to discuss your company's efforts and the need for additional time. As noted in my previous email, we appreciate Occidental's cooperation in this matter, but please keep in mind that we are working under a constricted time frame, as this site has been determined to be a time-critical removal action.

If you have further questions, please feel free to contact me.

Regards,
Marianne

Dear Ms. Lodin:

I am writing to follow-up on the voice mail message I left at your office today. I called and am now writing to respectfully request Glenn Springs Holdings, Inc., on behalf of Occidental Chemical Corporation, be allowed to respond to the September 9, 2011 CERCLA 104 letter relating to the above site on or before Friday, November 11, 2011. I appreciate your understanding as we continue our diligence. Thank you in advance for your prompt response and consideration. Should you wish to discuss this e-mail, I can be reached on my office phone at 972-687-7515 or mobile phone at 214-784-7614.

Respectfully,

Stephen Fitzgerald
