

Community Meeting #2: How Clean is Clean?
Germantown/Shelby Park Rail Corridor Planning Project
Tuesday, May 6, 2014
6:30 pm – 8:30 pm
Shelby Traditional Academy
735 Zeigler Street
Louisville, KY 40217

- Welcome and Introductions 6:30-6:50
 - Center for Environmental Policy and Management at UofL
 - Louisville Metro Department of Economic Growth and Innovation
 - Lord Aeck Sargent Urban Design/Brownfield Planning Consultants
 - Linebach Funkhouser
 - Great Ecology
 - Project Summary and Recap of April 8

- HOW CLEAN IS CLEAN? 6:50-8:00
 - Introduction to and discussion of clean-up standards:
Industrial, Commercial, Residential, Public/Recreational Standards
 - Consultant Perspectives

 - Table Top Discussions
 - Assign Note Taker
 - Address/Discuss Questions on Handout

 - Report Back

 - Full Group Discussion
 - What additional information do citizens need to fully participate in discussions about clean-up standards?

- Question and Answers - 8:00-8:15
 - What's Next?
 - Next meeting: Identifying Neighborhood Assets
June 10th 6:30pm AMVETS 1567 S. Shelby
 - Homework!
 - Who else needs to be here? Take some flyers.
 - Community Announcements!

- Revisit Maps and Additional Identification of Sites, Idea Collection 8:15-8:30
 - Identify/map historical practices or uses in the study area that may have caused contamination to land or creek.
 - Continue to make suggestions for future re-use/list concerns/desires for future
Remember that you can post ideas and pictures on the facebook site:
www.facebook.com/GermantownRailCorridor.

