

1991 community engagement activities<sup>1</sup> were reported by academic & administrative units in 2022-23 <sup>2</sup>

Community partnership and engaged service are core elements of the University of Louisville's mission. Whether it is working with students in local public schools, helping to provide services in underserved neighborhoods, or building stronger communities internationally, UofL is committed to collaborating with partners to improve quality of life in places both near and far. UofL Community Engagement projects break down into the following categories*:

486 instances of PARTNERSHIP

Ongoing collaboration with community partners for the mutually beneficial exchange of knowledge and resources in a context of partnership and reciprocity.

573 instances of OUTREACH

Providing direct services, time, or resources to benefit a community or its institutions. This includes instances of public intellectualism such as talks, lectures, presentations, performances, etc.

942 instances of CURRICULAR ENGAGEMENT

Describes the teaching, learning, and scholarship that engages students, and community in mutually beneficial and respectful collaboration through course work.

143 instances of ENGAGED SCHOLARSHIP

Scholarly work done in full partnership with the community. It consists of research, teaching, and the application of scholarship for the mutual benefit of the institution and community partner.

REVISED DRAFT 11-3-22

<sup>1</sup> As of 2015-16 we are adding more specificity by categorizing different types of community engagement activities in further alignment with definitions provided within the Carnegie Community Engagement Classification process. The categories, Partnership, Outreach, Curricular Engagement, and Engaged Scholarship, are described above.

<sup>2</sup> After review of the previous year's reports, two hundred sixty six activity forms that were not updated by UofL faculty and staff were deemed to likely still be active in 2022-23 and remain in this count of 1991

<sup>3</sup> These numbers represent instances of service and may reflect a duplicated head count for faculty, staff and students; but does not represent a duplication of service.
