

Issue	Recommended Responses	Resource(s)
FACE COVERINGS/MASKS IN CLASSROOMS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• If a student attends an in-person class without a face covering/mask, then the faculty member should calmly and politely inform the student that there is a requirement that all students wear a face covering/mask in class</li> <li>• The goal is to deescalate the situation and to remember our mission to educate. Inform students of changes to the Code of Student Conduct that require them to follow public health guidelines in a pandemic.</li> <li>• If a student does not have a face covering, tell the student where one can be provided. Allow the student to return to class after the student gets a mask.</li> <li>• If the student simply does not want to wear a face covering/mask, the student should be asked to leave the class.</li> <li>• If a student is requesting an ADA accommodation, have the student contact the Disability Resource Center (DRC). If DRC staff approve a mask accommodation, they would notify the instructor.</li> <li>• If the student refuses to leave the class because they are not willing to wear a face covering/mask, the faculty member could contact the department chair or designee</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Students can get a mask in Houchens, Student Activities Center W310, and Student Activities Center W301 during the first week of classes.</li> <li>• Failure to wear a face covering/mask in the classroom will result in the student not being permitted to enter the class and an unexcused absence for that class period.</li> <li>• Inform the department chair or supervisor of the situation.</li> <li>• The Disability Resource Center (DRC) does not intend to provide any exemptions for mask/face coverings on campus. The accommodations the DRC plan to offer are participating in online courses or wearing an alternative style face covering.</li> <li>• Depending on the severity, submit a report to Dean of Students Office (502) 852-5787 or dos@louisville.edu. Failure to leave the classroom when asked by the faculty member could be</li> </ul>

	to come to the class and intervene. The chair could request that the student go with them to a location outside of the class to discuss the situation while maintaining physical distance <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Depending on the time of the class and the severity of the situation, the faculty member could cancel the class and ask all students to leave. Each department or college can establish standards for when the faculty member can cancel the class and the procedure if the department chair is unreachable. If the faculty member cancels the class, they need to inform their department chair and the Dean of Students Office as soon as the class is over.</li><li>• As a last resort, should the student continue to refuse to leave the class, the faculty member could call University Police.</li><li>• Any incident in which a faculty member contacts ULPD because a student refuses to leave a class when they will not wear a face covering/mask, should be reported to the Dean of Students Office as soon as the class is over.</li></ul>	a violation of the Code of Student Conduct. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Call University Police (502) 852-6111.</li></ul>
--	--	---