

Issue	Recommended Responses	Resource(s)
FACE COVERINGS/MASKS IN CLASSROOMS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If a student attends an in-person class without a face covering/mask, then the faculty member should calmly inform the student that there is a requirement that all students wear a face covering/mask in class. • If a student does not want to wear a face covering/mask, the student should be asked to leave the class. The faculty member should also inform the student that failure to wear a face covering/mask in class will result in an unexcused absence for that class period. • If the student refuses to leave the class because they are not willing to wear a face covering/mask, the faculty member should tell the student they will call University Police to have the student escorted from class. • Should the student not leave class, the faculty member should call University Police. • Any incidents in which a faculty member contacts ULPD because a student refuses to leave a class when they will not wear a face covering/mask, should be reported to the Dean of Students Office (dos@louisville.edu). 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Failure to wear a face covering/mask in the classroom will result in the student not being permitted to enter the class and an unexcused absence for that class period. • Inform the department chair or supervisor of the situation • Depending on the severity, submit a report to Dean of Students Office (502) 852-5787 or dos@louisville.edu • Failure to leave the classroom when asked by the faculty member could be a violation of the Code of Student Conduct • University Police (502) 852-6111