SAFE COPING SKILLS

1. Ask for help - Reach out to someone safe. 2. Inspire yourself - Carry something positive (e.g., poem) or negative (photo of a friend who overdosed). 3. Leave a bad scene — When things go wrong, get out. 4. Persist - Never, never, never, never, never, never, never, never, never give up. 5. Honesty - Secrets and lying are at the core of PTSD and substance abuse; honesty heals them. 6. Cry - Let yourself cry; it will not last forever. 7. Choose self-respect — Choose whatever will make you like yourself tomorrow. 8. Take good care of your body — Eat right, exercise, sleep, safe sex. 9. List your options - In any situation, you have choices. 10. Creating meaning - Remind yourself what you are living for: your children? Love? Truth? Justice? God? 11. Do the best you can with what you have - Make the most of available opportunities. 12. Set a boundary - Say "no" to protect yourself. 13. Compassion – Listen to yourself with respect and care. 14. When in doubt, do what is hardest - The most difficult path is invariably the right one. 15. Talk yourself through it - Self-talk helps in difficult times. 16. Imagine - Create a mental picture that helps you feel different (e.g., remember a safe place). 17. Notice the choice point – In slow motion, notice the exact moment when you chose a substance. 18. Pace yourself – If overwhelmed, go slower; if stagnant, go faster. 19. Stay safe - Do whatever you need to put your safety above all. 20. Seek understanding, not blame - Listen to your behaviour; blaming prevents growth. 21. If one way does not work, try another - As if in a maze, turn a corner and try a new path. 22. Link PTSD and substance abuse - Recognize substances as an attempt to self-medicate. 23. Alone is better than a bad relationship — If only people who are receiving help are safe for now, that is okay. 24. Create a new story - You are the author of your life; be the hero who overcomes adversity. 25. Avoid avoidable suffering — Prevent bad situations in advance. 26. Ask others — Ask others if your belief is accurate. 27. Get organized — You will feel more in control with lists, "to do's" and a clean house. 28. Watch for danger signs — Face a problem before it becomes huge; notice red flags. 29. Healing above all - Focus on what matters. 30. Try something, anything - A good plan today is better than a perfect one tomorrow. 31. Discovery - Find out whether your assumption is true rather than staying "in your head". 32. Attend treatment – AA, self-help, therapy, medications, groups – anything that keeps you going. 33. Create a buffer – Put something between you and danger (e.g., time, distance). 34. Say what you really think - You will feel closer to others (but only do this with safe people). 35. Listen to your needs — No more neglect — really hear what you need. 36. Move toward your opposite – For example, if you are too dependent, try being more independent. 37. Replay the scene - Review a negative event; what can you do differently next time? 38. Notice the cost — What is the price of substance abuse in your life? 39. Structure your day - A productive schedule keeps you on track and connected to the world. 40. Set an action plan — Be specific, set a deadline, and let others know about it. 41. Protect yourself - Put up a shield against destructive people, bad environments, and substances. 42. Soothing talk - Talk to yourself very gently as if to a friend or small child.

SAFE COPING SKILLS

43. Think of the consequences – Really see the impact for tomorrow, next week, next year. 44. Trust the process – Just keep moving forward; the only way out is through. 45. Work the material – The more you practice and participate, the quicker the healing. 46. Integrate the split self – Accept all sides of yourself- they are there for a reason. 47. Expect growth to feel uncomfortable – If it feels awkward or difficult you're doing it right. 48. Replace destructive activities – eat candy instead of getting high. 49. Pretend you like yourself – See how different the day feels. 50. Focus on now – Do what you can to make today better; do not get overwhelmed by the past or future. 51. Praise yourself — Notice what you did right; this is the most powerful method of growth. 52. Observe repeating patterns – Try to notice and understand your re-enactments. 53. Self-nurture - Do something that you enjoy (e.g., take a walk, see a movie). 54. Practice delay - If you cannot totally prevent a self-destructive act, at least delay it as long as possible. 55. Let go of destructive relationships – If it cannot be fixed, detach. 56. Take responsibility – Take an active, not a passive, approach. 57. Set a deadline - Make it happen by setting a date. 58. Make a commitment – Promise yourself to do what is right to help your recovery. 59. Rethink – Think in a way that helps you feel better. 60. Detach from emotional pain (grounding) - Distract, walk away, change the channel. 61. Learn from experience – Seek wisdom that can help you next time. 62. Solve the problem – Do not take it personally when things go wrong – try to just seek a solution. 63. Use kinder language — Make your language less harsh. 64. Examine the evidence — Evaluate both sides of the picture. 65. Plan it out – Take the time to think ahead – it is the opposite of impulsivity. 66. Identify the belief – For example, shoulds, deprivation reasoning. 67. Reward yourself - Find a healthy way to celebrate anything you do right. 68. Create new "tapes" -Literally! Take a tape recorder and record a new way of thinking to play back. 69. Find rules to live by Remember a phrase that works for you (e.g., "Stay real").
70. Setbacks are not failures – A setback is just a setback, nothing more. 71. Tolerate the feeling - "No feeling is final", just get through it safely. 72. Actions first and feelings will follow - Do not wait until you feel motivated; just start now. 73. Create positive addictions - Sports, hobbies, AA... 74. When in doubt, don't - If you suspect danger, stay away. 75. Fight the trigger - Take an active approach to protect yourself. 76. Notice the source — Before you accept criticism or advice, notice who is telling it to you. 77. Make a decision – If you are stuck, try choosing the best solution you can right now; do not wait. 78. Do the right thing — Do what you know will help you, even if you don't feel like it. 79. Go to a meeting - Feet first; just get there and let the rest happen. 80. Protect your body from HIV -This is truly a life-or-death issue. 81. Prioritize healing — Make healing your most urgent and important goal, above all else. 82. Reach for community resources — Lean on them! They can be a source of great support. 83. Get others to support your recovery — Tell people what you need. 84. Notice what you can control – List the aspects of your life you do control (e.g., job, friends...)

YOU CAN DO IT!
