Here is the email language for faculty/staff to use:

The University of Louisville has a number of resources to support student success and well-being. Those resources include our Counseling Center and Dean of Students Office. Below, are link to those resources as well as others. I encourage you to learn more about these resources and reach out if you need assistance.

University of Louisville Counseling Center: http://louisville.edu/counseling
Dean of Students Office: http://louisville.edu/dos/help

Other helpful resources:
- To search for on campus resource for a specific concern: https://louisville.concerncenter.com/
- Student emergency fund application: http://louisville.edu/dos/help/studentemergencyfund
- Cardinal Cupboard food pantry: https://www.uoflelsb.org/cardinal-cupboard.html
- To report a student concern: http://louisville.edu/dos/forms/sctreporting
- To report a crime or suspicious activity: http://louisville.edu/dos/help/anonymousscrimereport
- Urgent, crisis, and emergency information: http://louisville.edu/counseling/emergencies
- Counseling resources, including off campus providers and Student Insurance Advocate contact information: http://louisville.edu/counseling/resources