HARRIET WASHINGTON

Thursday, October 5
Kornhauser Library Auditorium
12:00-1:30 p.m.*

Harriet Washington is a medical ethicist and award-winning author. Her unique voice deconstructs the politics around medical issues. She provides historically accurate information on 'scientific racism' and paints a powerful and disturbing portrait of medicine, race, sex, and the abuse of power. Washington makes the case for broader political consciousness, challenging the established paradigms in the history of medicine. Join us for an in-depth conversation.
