Relation of Nominator to the Nominee(s) (e.g., publisher, colleague, etc.)

Nomination Deadline: April 15, 2020

Along with this nomination form, the nominator must submit a one-page letter of nomination that identifies the specific work, idea, or achievement being nominated and that delineates the reasons why the entry merits the award. Persons who received the Grawemeyer Award in a previous year are not eligible to receive the Award a second time.

Upon receipt of this form and letter, the nominee(s) will be notified at the address(es) provided on this form of the nomination and sent a nominee form that explains the award conditions. Each nominee must then submit a signed nominee form and supporting materials to the university by May 15, 2020. All materials submitted become property of the University of Louisville.

Your signature is required on this form and the information on this form must be complete before your nomination can be processed.
