

Vital Statistics Report August 2020

The University of Louisville is a public institution that houses the nationally accredited Clinical Mental Health Counseling (CMHC) and School Counseling (SC) programs in the Department of Counseling and Human Development in the College of Education and Human Development. Accredited under the 2009 Standards from the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP), the CMHC program is 60 hours and prepares students for licensure as a Professional Counselor in the state of Kentucky. The SC program is 48 hours and prepares students for certification as a School Counselor in Kentucky.

There are 30 students enrolled in the CMHC program. The CMHC program graduated 12 students at the end of AY 2019-20, and all of the graduates completed the program in the expected time period; 83% of the students obtained their associate license (LPCA); and 83% found employment related to the master’s degree. There are 15 students enrolled the SC program. The SC program graduated 13 students at the end of AY 2019-20, and all completed the program in the expected time period. Additionally, 92% found employment related to the master’s degree.

Table 1 provides the student demographics for the CMHC and SC programs as of Fall 2019.

Table 1.
Demographics of Master's Students in CMHC or SC (N = 45)

	African American	American Indian/ Native Alaskan	Asian American	Caucasian/ White	Hispanic/ Latino/ Spanish American	Native Hawaiian/ Pacific Islander	Multi-racial	Other/ Un-disclosed	Non-resident Alien
Female	4	0	0	25	3	0	1	0	0
Male	1	0	0	10	1	0	0	0	0

