PROGRAM CONCENTRATIONS

Leadership and Organizational Development

- Designed for professionals who develop organizational leadership capacity, improve organizational effectiveness, and enhance stakeholder well-being.

Training and Development

- Designed for professionals who work with clients to enhance learning and improve organizational performance.

Career and Technical Education

- Designed for industrial education instructors in secondary schools.
- Students in this concentration prepare to become state certified in order to maintain their teaching position.

ONLINE AND CLASSROOM OPTIONS

All major courses are offered online or in the classroom in the evening in Louisville or on the base at Fort Knox. Some students take advantage of both options.

Online courses can be accessed at home or anywhere in the world. The online format enables you to complete classes at times and places that fit your busy lifestyle without entering a traditional classroom.

WHAT SETS US APART?

Workforce Leadership graduates gain skills in the areas of leadership, organizational development, performance interventions, and evaluation. Through the program, students will develop skills by exploring cutting-edge concepts and designing hands-on projects related to:

- Human Resources
- Organizational Development
- Training and Development
- Workforce Development

The program is . . .

Relevant

The program has a strong emphasis on hands-on, applied projects that provide direct application to the workplace.

Rigorous

Expect to work hard and complete challenging assignments. One of the major goals of the program is to help you become a more critical thinker in the field.

Research Focused

Faculty bring a solid theoretical mindset, as well as a real-world practitioner orientation to teaching.
