

Resume or Curriculum Vita

Along with other relevant information, in your resume or curriculum vita, please include the following:

- home and office email addresses along with phone number(s);
- educational background;
- professional employment history;
- courses taught or professional development delivered;
- scholarly/professional writings and creative activities;
- active involvement and leadership in professional and community activities; and
- professional and academic honors and recognitions.

Submit your resume or curriculum vita to the Ph.D. Curriculum and Instruction Program (address on "Application Process Overview" form).