Sherril E. Brakmeier Award is given to an outstanding senior in the HSS Department who has made significant contributions in service to the university, community, and profession.

Joseph R. Trabue Award is given to an outstanding senior in the HSS Department whose personal characteristics and scholarship give promise to constructive leadership.

Ellis J. Mendelsohn Award recognizes an outstanding graduate student in the HSS Department who has made significant contributions in service to the university, community, and profession.

Clark F. Wood Award is given to an outstanding graduate student in the HSS Department whose personal characteristics and scholarship give promise to constructive leadership.

Sue Hall Award is awarded to an outstanding student in the field of Health or Physical Education.

Savannah Walker Award for Social Justice is given in memory of Savannah Walker and is awarded to an outstanding senior in the HSS Department who has demonstrated a commitment to social justice, equity, and inclusion.

Counseling & Human Development (ECPY)

College Student Personnel Community Engagement Award recognizes the program's emphasis on active community engagement and is awarded to the student who exemplifies the program's goals by serving the community while completing the program.

Erica J. Holloman Achievement Award is presented to a graduating student in the College Student Personnel Program who has been able to persevere to graduation while maintaining a good academic record in the face of personal adversity. The award is named in honor of Erica J. Holloman, a doctoral student who persevered through her doctoral coursework and comprehensive examination while battling cancer but passed away in 2011 before completing her dissertation.

Ron Denney College Student Personnel Peer Leader Award recognizes a graduating student selected by other students in the College Student Personnel program as an individual who has modeled excellent behavior as a College Student Personnel student in academics, professional practice and camaraderie.

Educational Leadership, Evaluation, and Organization Development (LEAD)

Blake Haselton Community Change Agent is named in honor of Dr. Blake Haselton for his more than four decades of contributions to public education in Kentucky. This award is given to an outstanding P-12 Educational Leadership student in the Ed.S. or Ed.D. program who facilitates positive change in their school(s) and community.

Christopher Frey Military Learning Award in Organizational Leadership and Learning – Due to Workforce Leadership program's strong emphasis on serving veterans and members of the armed forces, one outstanding military learner is recognized each year who substantially demonstrates ethics, leadership, professional competence, and academic proficiency.

Human Resource Education Community Engagement Award recognizes the Human Resource Education graduate student who most exemplifies the ideals of using human resource development practices to better our communities and society.

Malcom S. Knowles Award in Organizational Leadership and Learning is named after the renowned adult educator who developed widely used theoretical ideas for adult learning. This award recognizes an outstanding adult learner in the Workforce Leadership undergraduate program who excels both academically and professionally by successfully integrating prior learning into the program.

Organizational Leadership and Learning Community Engagement Award – The Workforce Leadership undergraduate program is designed to serve the needs of our community. This award recognizes the student who exemplifies the program’s goals by serving the community while completing the program.

Resilience Award – Doctoral Student honors the efforts of doctoral students in Ph.D. in Educational Leadership and Organizational Development who responded in positive and inspiring ways in the face of personal adversity. The award recognizes students who foster a positive learning environment, persevered and overcome challenges while maintaining a strong academic record.

Outstanding Doctorate of Education Student Award is given to an outstanding P-12 Educational Leadership student in the Ed.D. program.

Outstanding Student Award - Education Specialist is given to an outstanding P-12 Educational Leadership student in the Ed.S. degree program.

Outstanding Master of Arts Student in Higher Education Administration Award is given to students who have excelled academically, but also demonstrated a high level of engagement and dedication with the profession. Recipients have shown their commitment to students, higher education, and advancement of the field.

Outstanding Military Student in Higher Education Award recognizes exemplary achievements by a military student in the Master of Arts in Higher Education Administration (M.A. HEA) program.

Outstanding Organizational Leadership & Learning Student Award recognizes a B.S. OLL student who has demonstrated diligence, great effort, and tenacity to complete the B.S. OLL Degree. This student may also have educational, professional, and personal experiences that demonstrate a lifelong journey of learning, service and scholarship.

R. Wayne Pace Award – Human Resource Education is named after the founding president of the Academy of Human Resource Development and it recognizes the outstanding graduate student in Human Resource Education who exemplifies the Academy's mission of leading the field through research-based practice.

Resilience Award in Organizational Leadership and Learning recognizes a Workforce Leadership undergraduate student who has overcome significant barriers or obstacles to achieve academic success.

Sheila D. Bridgeman Student Collegiality Award recognizes an outstanding graduate student in the Human Resource and Organizational Development program. Recipients of this award are students who foster a positive learning environment, exemplify outstanding collegiality and enthusiasm, or perseverance in the face of adversity.

Special Education, Early Childhood and Prevention Science (SECP)

Delta Zeta Awards in Special Education - In Honor of Mrs. Julia Heil Sikora and Mrs. Gladys George Corley is awarded each year by the alumnae of the Delta Zeta sorority and the Department of Special Education to honor two graduating students who have demonstrated outstanding scholarship, leadership, and service.

Diane Kyle Award for Outstanding Community Engagement is awarded in honor of Diane Kyle who served 34 years at the University of Louisville as professor, department chair and director of the Nystrand Center for Excellence in Education. This award recognizes an outstanding student in Early Childhood or Elementary Education who exemplifies the spirit of community engagement through collaboration, innovation or inspiration.

Joe Wilkes Award for Outstanding Student Teacher of Elementary Education is awarded in honor of distinguished professor, Dr. Joe Wilkes, who served UofL from 1952 to 1959. This award is given to an outstanding student teacher in the Early Childhood and Elementary program and the Middle and Secondary program.

Elementary, Middle & Secondary Teacher Education (EMSTEd)

Chuck Thompson Award for Outstanding Master of Arts in Teaching Award is awarded in honor of Dr. Chuck Thompson who served 35 years at the University of Louisville as a professor. This award is given in his honor to an outstanding Masters of the Arts in Teaching graduate.

College of Education and Human Development Award

Outstanding Graduate – The College of Education and Human Development selects one graduating student who will represent the College as our Outstanding Graduate. Faculty nominate deserving students, and the final selection is made by the Honors and Scholarship Committee. Students are selected based on academic performance and service to both the university and the community. The student who is selected has the honor of carrying the College's banner and leads the processional for our graduates during the Commencement ceremony.

University of Louisville Awards

Reserve Officers Training Corps (ROTC) Distinguished Military Graduate Award is awarded by the United States Army Cadet Command, with the top 20 percent earning of graduating seniors earning the designation of Distinguished Military Graduate. The order-of-merit list is compiled based on several criteria, including grade point average, strong performance on the Army Physical Fitness Test, college athletic participation, and performance during college ROTC training and Advanced Camp at Fort Knox, Kentucky.
