Sherril E. Brakmeier Award is given to an outstanding senior in the HSS Department who has made significant contributions in the area of service to the university, community, and profession.

Sue Hall Award is awarded to an outstanding student in the field of Health or Physical Education.

The John Heldman Academic Achievement Award recognizes an HSS graduate with a combination of leadership and service on campus and in the Louisville community.

William Weinberg Award for Outstanding Graduate Student in Physical Education Teacher Preparation is given in honor of Dr. William T. Weinberg who served as a faculty member and former Chair of the Department of Health and Sport Sciences.

Counseling and Human Development (ECPY)

College Student Personnel Program Excellence in Scholarship Award recognizes a graduating student who has distinguished themselves in not only the qualitative assessment of academic work but also in the general excellence of the overall quality of academic work and the demonstration of critical thinking and scholarship that the work exemplifies.

College Student Personnel Community Engagement Award recognizes the program's emphasis on active community engagement and is awarded to the student who exemplifies the program's goals by serving the community while completing the program.

Ron Denney College Student Personnel Peer Leader Award recognizes a graduating student selected by other students in the College Student Personnel program as an individual who has modeled excellent behavior as a College Student Personnel student in academics, professional practice and camaraderie.

Educational Leadership, Evaluation, and Organization Development (ELEOD)

Blake Haselton Community Change Agent – Blake Haselton Community Change Agent is named in honor of Dr. Blake Haselton for his more than four decades of contributions to public education in Kentucky. This award is given to an outstanding P-12 Educational Leadership student in the Ed.S. or Ed.D. program who facilitates positive change in their school(s) and community.

Christopher Frey Military Learning Award in Organizational Leadership and Learning – Due to Workforce Leadership program's strong emphasis on serving veterans and members of the armed forces, one outstanding military learner is recognized each year who substantially demonstrates ethics, leadership, professional competence, and academic proficiency.

Human Resource Education Community Engagement Award – This award recognizes the Human Resource Education graduate student who most exemplifies the ideals of using human resource development practices to better our communities and society.

Malcom S. Knowles Award in Organizational Leadership and Learning – Malcom S. Knowles Award in Organizational Leadership is named after the renowned adult educator who developed widely used theoretical ideas for adult learning. This award recognizes an outstanding adult learner in the Workforce Leadership undergraduate program who excels both academically and professionally by successfully integrating prior learning into the program.

Organizational Leadership and Learning Community Engagement Award – The Workforce Leadership

undergraduate program is designed to serve the needs of our community. This award recognizes the student who exemplifies the program's goals by serving the community while completing the program.

Outstanding Student Award – Education Specialist is given to an outstanding P-12 Educational Leadership student in the Ed.S. degree program.

Outstanding Master of Arts Student in Higher Education Administration Award is given to students who have excelled academically, but also demonstrated a high level of engagement and dedication with the profession. Recipients have shown their commitment to students, higher education, and advancement of the field.

Outstanding Organizational Leadership & Learning Student Award recognizes a B.S. OLL student who has demonstrated diligence, great effort, and tenacity to complete the B.S. OLL Degree. This student may also have educational, professional, and personal experiences that demonstrate a lifelong journey of learning, service and scholarship.

R. Wayne Pace Award – Human Resource Education
This award is named after the founding president of the Academy of Human Resource Development and it recognizes the outstanding graduate student in Human Resource Education who exemplifies the Academy's mission of leading the field through research-based practice.

Resilience Award in Organizational Leadership and Learning – This award recognizes a Workforce Leadership undergraduate student who has overcome significant barriers or obstacles to achieve academic success.

Sheila D. Bridgeman Student Collegiality Award –

This award recognizes an outstanding graduate student in the Human Resource and Organizational Development program. Recipients of this award are students who foster a positive learning environment, exemplify outstanding collegiality and enthusiasm, or perseverance in the face of adversity.

Special Education, Early Childhood and Early Prevention (SECP)

Delta Zeta Awards in Special Education - In Honor of

is awarded each year by the alumnae of the Delta Zeta sorority and the Department of Special Education to honor two graduating students who have demonstrated outstanding scholarship, leadership, and service.

Special Education Personnel with Enhanced Core Content Knowledge -

The Department of Special Education recognizes graduating students in the competitive Special Education Personnel with Enhanced Core Content Knowledge (SPECCK) program, funded by the U.S. Department of Education. SPECCK students receive rigorous coursework in academics and moderate severe disabilities. These students take extra courses each summer and attend additional professional development opportunities to further their capacity to build bright futures for some our communities' most disenfranchised students.

Elementary, Middle & Secondary Teacher Education (EMSTEd)

Chuck Thompson Award for Outstanding Master of Arts in Teaching Award –

Given in honor of Dr. Chuck Thompson who served 35 years at the University of Louisville as a professor. This award is given in his honor to an outstanding Masters of the Arts in Teaching graduate.

Diane Kyle Award for Outstanding Community Engagement is given in honor of Dr. Diane Kyle who served 34 years at the University of Louisville as professor, department chair and director of the Nystrand Center for Excellence in Education. This award recognizes an outstanding student in Early Childhood or Elementary Education who exemplifies the spirit of community engagement through collaboration, innovation or inspiration.

Joe Wilkes Award for Outstanding Student Teacher is given in honor of distinguished professor, Dr. Joe Wilkes, who served UofL from 1952 to 1959. This award is given to an outstanding student teacher in the Early Childhood and Elementary program and the Middle and Secondary program.

College of Education and Human Development Award

Outstanding Graduate - The College of Education and Human Development selects one graduating student who will represent the College as our Outstanding Graduate. Faculty nominate deserving students, and the final selection is made by the Honors and Scholarship Committee. Students are selected based on academic performance and service to both the university and the community. The student who is selected has the honor of carrying the College's banner and leads the processional for our graduates during the Commencement ceremony.

University of Louisville Awards

Graduate Dean's Citation is awarded to masters and doctoral students recommended by their academic departments in recognition of superior accomplishment (e.g., publications, teaching experience, and professional service) in their graduate studies.

Virginia "Jenny" Madden Award for Graduate Student Leadership and Service is named in honor of Jenny Madden for many years of service to the former Graduate School and the School of Interdisciplinary and Graduate Studies. This award recognizes a master degree recipient who exhibits leadership through service to the recipient's program, college, discipline, the University as a whole, and/or the community.

Honors Scholars are characterized by their high level of academic achievement and their commitment to the value of Honors education. Honors Scholars will be designated on the student's diploma and transcripts.

Mortar Board Senior Honor Society is the premier national honor society recognizing college seniors for superior achievement in scholarship, leadership and service.
