

CEHD Insider - October 2016

College, Student, Alumni News, and Special Events

CEHD News

CEHD Student Named A Fulbright Scholar

Jonathan Perez, a graduate of the MAT in Secondary Education program with a concentration in Spanish, was selected for a Fulbright Scholarship and will teach English in Brazil beginning in February 2017. He is currently teaching at Jefferson County Public Schools' South Park Teenage Parent Program that is located in Fairdale. Read more...

Greenwell Selected to Receive the Stotlar Award

Chris Greenwell, Professor in the Department of Health and Sport Sciences, was selected by the Sport Marketing Association (SMA) to receive the 2016 Stotlar Award. This prestigious national award was established to honor and recognize a sport marketing educator who reflects the mission of SMA through the promotion and advancement of doctoral students in the discipline.

Read more...

Longerbeam Publishes Two Books

Susan Longerbeam, Associate Professor in the Department of Counseling and Human Development, published two books this year. The first, Going Inward: The role of cultural introspection in college teaching, with co-author Alicia F. Chavez, introduces readers to cultural self-reflection as a powerful tool for insight into how our values and beliefs from our cultural and familial upbringing influence our teaching practice. The second, Teaching Across Cultural Strengths: A guide to balancing integrated and individual cultural frameworks in college teaching, also with co-author Alicia R. Chavez, is a guide intended for all faculty, faculty developers or administrators in higher education concerned with equitable outcomes in higher education and with ensuring that all student cultural groups learn and graduate at the same rates.

UofL Heart Walk Wrap-Up

161 walkers signed up with the CEHD Black and Red teams, and a total of $3,535 was raised for the American Heart Association. Thanks to everyone who participated and a very special thanks to Shannon Frey and Mike Jett for serving as team captains!

Congratulations to CEHD Faculty Favorites!

Denise Cumberland, Assistant Professor in the Department of Educational Leadership, Evaluation and Organizational Development, is a Top 4 Faculty Favorite for 2015-16. The following CEHD faculty were also nominated as 2015-16 Faculty Favorites:

Counseling and Human Development

Jill Adelson	Kate Snyder
Rick Balkin	Jeff Valentine
Eileen Estes	Ahmad Washington
Pat Hardesty	Hongryun Woo
Amy Hirschy	Geoff Bailey - Adjunct
Lisa Hooper	Brian Buford - Adjunct
Marybeth Orton	Angela Horn - Adjunct
Patrick Possel

Early Childhood and Elementary Education

Betty Doyle

Educational Leadership, Evaluation and Organizational Development

Meera Alagaraja	Ann Herd
Matt Bergman	Kevin Rose
Roger Buskill	Terri Rowland
Ray Haynes	Rodney Merkley - Adjunct

Health and Sport Sciences

Marion Hambrick	Megan Shreffler
Meg Hancock	Daniela Terson de Paleville
Mary Hums	Susan Peacock - Adjunct
Mike Jett	Linda Jackson - Adjunct
Kristi King	Therese Gehrke - Adjunct
Gin Presley	Cheryl Hart - Adjunct

Middle and Secondary Education

Lateefah Id-Deen
Betty Amick - Adjunct

Special Education

Alexis Varney - Adjunct

Like us on Facebook:

<http://www.facebook.com/uofeducation>

The University of Louisville is an equal opportunity institution.

Submit Items to the Insider

The CEHD Insider is an internal newsletter designed to inform faculty and staff about college news and events. Information such as research, presentations, publications, awards, conferences, meetings, or special events will be featured in each edition. If you have news to share, please send to dorothy@louisville.edu, or call 502-852-2639.

Meet the CEHD's New War College Fellow

Col. Archie S. Henderson Jr. is the 2016 UofL Army War College Fellow. He will study criminal justice, international relations, and talent acquisition while he is a student in the CEHD, and works in the McConnell Center. This is the third year for the UofL program. Read more...

Bratcher Featured in UofL Today

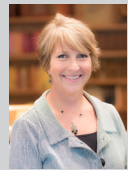

Adrienne Bratcher, Assistant Professor in the Department of Health and Sport Sciences, was featured in UofL Today news for her unique method in teaching content to students in her Human Anatomy and Physiology class. Read more...

BOT Approves CIBRS

During their September meeting, the UofL Board of Trustees (BOT) officially approval for the CEHD's new Center for Instructional and Behavioral Research in Schools (CIBRS). Terry Scott, Distinguished University Scholar and Professor in the Department of Special Education, is the center director. CIBRS will promote and fund research and community outreach related to the prevention of student failures in educational settings, whether it is academic, social, health, or mental health.

CEHD Faculty on UofL Today Show

The following CEHD faculty were guests on the radio show, UofL Today with Mark Hebert:

--Sept. 6th, Jenny Bay-Williams, Professor and Chair in the Department of Middle and Secondary Education, discussed innovative ways to teach math.

--Sept. 13th, Mary Hums, Professor in the Department of Health and Sport Sciences, spoke about her research and experiences with the Paralympics.

Link to these and other shows...

Dr. Hums was also a guest on KPCC - AirTalk Radio Show, Los Angeles NPR. The topic of discussion was about Rome dropping out of the bidding process for the 2024 Olympic and Paralympic Games. Read more and link to the show...

Ingle Attends AERA Division L Meeting

In September, Kyle Ingle, Assistant Chair and Associate Professor in the Department of Educational Leadership, Evaluation and Organizational Development, attended the American Educational Research Association's (AERA) Division L (Educational Policy and Politics) Planning Meeting, which was held at the University of Virginia. Dr. Ingle is serving a second year as Chair of the Human Capital and School Finance Section. He and his fellow section Chairs met to develop the program for the 2017 annual AERA meeting that will be held in San Antonio, TX in April.

Cooper Elected VP of CCBD

Justin Cooper, Assistant Professor in the Department of Special Education, was elected as Vice President of the Council for Children with Behavioral Disorders (CCBD), which is an international organization dedicated to improving educational practices for children with emotional and behavioral disorders. He was elected for a four-year-term and will serve one-year each as Vice President, President Elect, President, and Past President.

Laman and CEHD Alumna Project Featured by Local News and JCPS

Tasha Tropp Laman, Director of the Nystrand Center and Associate Professor in the Department of Early Childhood and Elementary Education, and Janelle Henderson, a graduate of the MAT in Early Elementary Education and second grade teacher at J.B. Atkinson Academy were recently featured on WLKY news. Henderson's class had been studying the life of Muhammad Ali through children's literature while learning what makes them the greatest. Muhammad Ali's brother, Rahman Ali, visited Henderson's class to talk with them about the legendary boxer and philanthropist. Henderson and Dr. Laman are partners on a project titled, "National Council Teachers of English and Culturally Responsive Professional Dyads." See the news story...

The September issue of the Jefferson County Public Schools' (JCPS) Envision Equity magazine featured Dr. Tropp Laman's Dyads project as well. See page 5 in the magazine...

Cumberland and Immekus to Partner with OVEC on Hi-Q2 Project

Denise Cumberland, Assistant Professor, and Jason Immekus, Associate Professor, both in the Department of Educational Leadership, Evaluation and Organizational Development (ELEOD), received a grant to conduct an evaluation of the perceived quality and effectiveness of the Ohio Valley Educational Cooperative (OVEC) professional development of the Hi-Q2 Math project. Students' mathematics achievement (e.g., interim assessments, end-of-grade test scores) data will be used to determine the extent to which the training may influence teachers' classroom practices related to promoting academic achievement. Qualitative data will include interview data from OVEC professional development participants, which will be based on semi-structured interview questions gathered from focus groups conducted three times over one year.

Mooneyhan Receives KYA Award

Leon Mooneyhan, CEO of OVEC, UofL Overseer, and CEHD Advisory Board member, was presented the inaugural Kentucky Youth Advocates (KYA) Courage for Kids Award for his years as an educator and supporter of KYA.

Submit Items to the Insider

The CEHD Insider is an internal newsletter designed to inform faculty and staff about college news and events. Information such as research, presentations, publications, awards, conferences, meetings, or special events will be featured in each edition. If you have news to share, please send to dorothy@louisville.edu, or call 502-852-2639.

ELEOD Presentations and Publications

Publications

- Jason Immekus, and co-author Dean McGee's article, "The Measurement Invariance of the Student Opinion Scale Across English and Non-English Language Learner Students within the Context of Low- and High-Stakes Assessments," was published in Frontiers in Psychology, Read the article...

- Casey George-Jackson, Assistant Professor, and co-authors' article, "Tipping Points: Doctoral Students and Consideration of Departure," was published in the Journal of College Student Retention: Research, Theory and Practice. Read the full article... In addition, Dr. George-Jackson and co-author, Blanca Rincon, published, "Examining Departmental Climate for Women in Engineering," in the Journal of College Student Development. Read the full article...

- Kevin Rose, Assistant Professor, and co-authors published, "Organizational Citizenship Behavior in Higher Education: Examining the Relationships Between Behaviors and Institutional Performance," in the Journal of Higher Education Management. Read the full article...

- Matt Bergman, Assistant Professor, and co-authors published, "The Impact of Pre/post Enrollment Interventions on College Success for First-generation Black Students," in the Journal of Higher Education Management, 31(2), (not yet available online). In addition, Dr. Bergman and Denise Cumberland, Assistant Professor, and co-author published, "An Integrative Literature Review on the Barriers Impacting Adult Learners' Return to College," in Adult Learning. Dr. Bergman and co-author published, "Affordability and the Return on Investment of College Completion: Unique Challenges and Opportunities for Adult Learners," in the Journal of Continuing Higher Education, 64(3), (Journal website).

Presentation

- Ray K. Haynes, Associate Professor Term, will present at the Kentuckiana Chapter of the Association for Talent Development's Day of Learning event that will be held on Oct. 25th. The title of his presentation is, "Mentoring in Work Organizations: Making the Most of this Misunderstood Developmental Relationship."

Buskill Appointed to ATD National Advisors Committee

Roger Buskill, Instructor in the Department of Educational Leadership, Evaluation and Organizational Development, has been appointed to serve with the Association for Talent Development (ATD) National Advisors for Chapters. The group consists of distinguished ATD chapter past presidents who serve as national volunteer advisors to the chapter services team and chapter leaders.

Learn more...

Vidoni Presents at University São Paulo

Carla Vidoni, Assistant Professor in the Department of Health and Sport Sciences, was invited to present, "Analysis of Social Competence in Physical Education," at the School of Physical Education and Sport at the University of São Paulo, and, "Professional Master's Degree in Education: Experience in the United States," at the Center of Education and Human Sciences at the Federal University of São Carlos in São Paulo, Brazil. In addition, she served on a master's thesis committee for Felipe Gustavo Santos Canciglieri, a physical education student at the School of Education and Movement Sciences at the State University of São Paulo in Brazil.

Mark Publishes Article

Sharon Mark, Assistant Professor in the Department of Middle and Secondary Education, published, "Psychology of Working Narratives of STEM: Career Exploration for Non-dominant Youth," in the Journal of Science Education and Technology. Read the article...

SPED Faculty Publish Article

Robert Pennington, Monica Delano, Associate Professors, and Ginevra Courtade, Department Chair, in the Department of Special Education, along with co-author Melinda Ault with the University of Kentucky, published, "Five Essential Features of Quality Educational Programs for Students with Moderate Intellectual Disability: A Guide for Administrators," in Education and Training in Autism and Developmental Disabilities. Read the article...

Caruso Receives NSF Funding

John Caruso, Professor in the Department of Health and Sport Sciences' Exercise Physiology program, received $2,500 from the National Science Foundation (NSF) I-Corps program (NASA/Kentucky Space Grant Consortium). His study will assess muscle and bone changes that result from a 10-week exercise program done on a novel prototype machine, which provides resistance without the requirement of gravity to operate.

Nisbett Appointed to COSW

Desrie Nisbett, Unit Business Manager for the Department of Teaching and Learning, was appointed by President Pinto as a Commissioner with the Commission on the Status of Women (COSW). She will serve a three-year term.

Submit Items to the Insider

The CEHD Insider is an internal newsletter designed to inform faculty and staff about college news and events. Information such as research, presentations, publications, awards, conferences, meetings, or special events will be featured in each edition. If you have news to share, please send to dorothy@louisville.edu, or call 502-852-2639.

Rose to Serve on OLC Panel

Dr. Kevin Rose, Assistant Professor in the Department of Educational Leadership, Evaluation and Organizational Development's (ELEOD) Organizational Leadership and Learning program, was selected to serve on an expert panel for the Online Learning Consortium Research Study for Online Faculty Practice. ELEOD has been recognized in several rankings for having leading online programs. Dr. Rose's work with the panel will lead to a national Quality Scorecard for the Online Faculty Practice. Learn more...

Seneca High School Listed Among Best Practice Schools

Seneca High School, a Jefferson County Public Schools (JCPS) Priority School and CEHD partner school, was listed among the Kentucky Department of Education's Best Practice Schools for their PLC process, Aligning Standards, Targets, and Assessments. CEHD faculty members working in the school are Sheron Mark, Lateefah Id Deen, Assistant Professors, Shelley Thomas, Associate Professor, and Amy Stevens, all with the Department of Middle and Secondary Education. They are part of the CARDS to CREATE grant work, for which Harrie Buecker, Nystrand Center Liaison for School and District Partnerships, is the PI.

See the news release...

MTRP News and Announcements

- Come Together Kentucky (CTK) conference will be held, November 3 – 6, 2016, at Murray State University this year. Students from UofL, Morehead, Murray State University, Northern Kentucky University, and the University of Kentucky will attend. For more information, visit the conference website, or email LGBT@louisville.edu.

Visit the MTRP website for a complete list of upcoming events.

Student News

The following students and faculty in the Department of Counseling and Human Development (ECPY) did Poster Presentations at the 2016 American Psychological Association (APA) Annual Convention that was held in Denver, CO.

- Caroline Pittard, a master's and doctoral student in the counselingandpersonnelservices(CSP)programwithaspecializationin counseling psychology, Jill Adelson, Associate Professor, and Patrick Pössel, Professor, presented, "Examining Socio-emotional Well-being and Mathematics Attitudes in Elementary School Boys and Girls."
- Sarah Roane, a doctoral student in the CSP program with a specialization in counseling psychology, and Patrick Pössel, presented, "Depression in Family Caregivers of Cancer Patients."
- Dominic Schmuck, a master's and doctoral student in the CSP program with a specialization in counseling psychology, and Mark Leach, Department Chair, presented, "The Relational Impact of Perpetrator's Infidelity Related to Self-Forgiveness."

- Lali McCubbin, Associate Professor in ECPY, and Bridget Cauley, a doctoral student in the CSP with a specialization in counseling psychology, presented, "Coping Health Inventory for Parents among Caregivers of Children with Chronic Illnesses in Mexico," and "Psychometric Properties of the Resilience Scale among Caregivers of Children with Chronic Illnesses."
- Kaylyn Watterson, a master's and doctoral student in the CSP program with a specialization in counseling psychology, and Mark Leach presented, "Spirituality and Religiosity as Unique Predictors of Posttraumatic Growth."

Bianca Nightengale-Lee, Holmes scholar and doctoral student in the Curriculum and Instruction program, received a grant from the Conference on English Education (CEE), which is a division of the National Council for Teachers of English (NCTE) to do her dissertation work. Only four grants are awarded each year from the CEE division. Her dissertation is titled, "Educating Critically: Intersectionality of Critical Pedagogy in the Literacy Methods Classroom."

Alumni News

Kate McNulty, a graduate of the PhD program in Counseling and Personnel Services, was recently selected as the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies at the California Institute of Technology.

Fashaad Crawford, a graduate of the PhD program in Educational Leadership and Organizational Development, was recently selected as the Vice Provost of Accreditation and Assessment at North Carolina State University.

Kentucky Teacher Achievement Award Winners Announced

The Kentucky Department of Education (KDE) and Valvoline™ announced the 2017 Valvoline Teacher Achievement Award winners and three CEHD graduates are among those selected: Jennifer O'Daniel, MAT in Secondary Education with a concentration in Spanish and teacher at Olive Hill Elementary School; Kip Hottman, MEd in Counseling and Personnel Services with a specialization in Secondary School Counseling and teacher at Fern Creek High School; Tricia Shelton, currently enrolled in the PhD in Curriculum and Instruction program and teacher at Boone County High School. They are now qualified to compete for the 2017 Kentucky Teacher of the Year Award, which will be announced in late October. See the KDE news release...

Upcoming Events

- October 23 - 25, 2016
Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) and Education Profession Standards Board (EPSB) accreditation visit
- Saturday, October 29th, 1 - 4 p.m.
Gheens Science Hall and Rauch Planetarium
Fright Light Halloween Party

Submit Items to the Insider

The CEHD Insider is an internal newsletter designed to inform faculty and staff about college news and events. Information such as research, presentations, publications, awards, conferences, meetings, or special events will be featured in each edition. If you have news to share, please send to dorothy@louisville.edu, or call 502-852-2639.

