

My Child's Education Team Roster

To strengthen the partnership between home and your child's school, you have to know whom you are partnering with! Identifying the players in your child's education team is the key to ensuring success for your child. While each child's team looks different, below are some of the common players. There is also room to add any other players. Keep this sheet handy so that you know whom to call if any issues or questions arise during the school year.
