

Undergraduate Advising and Student Development Profile

Academic Counselor
Organizational Leadership & Learning
Porter Education Building, Room 140
Jennifer.huff@louisville.edu
(502) 852-2547

Jennifer Huff

Statement of Advising Philosophy:

Advising is an important aspect to higher education, and a steppingstone for student success. I believe every student deserves undivided time, compassion, and the best of myself. Knowing that barriers vary from student to student, I will utilize all resources as an advisor for students and the community that I serve, to help remove any obstacle that I can. Student success is my success.

Higher Education Experience:

- Academic Advisor, University of Louisville, 2024
- Graduate Recruiter, Spalding University, 2023-2024
- Associate Director of Admissions for Processing and Communications, Jefferson Community & Technical College, 2017-2023
- Master of Arts in Organizational Leadership, Western Kentucky University, 2019
- Bachelor of Science in Interdisciplinary Studies, Western Kentucky University, 2017
- Campus Assistant – Fort Knox, Elizabethtown Community & Technical College, 2012-2016
- Associate of Arts, Elizabethtown Community & Technical College, 2016
- Associate of Applied Sciences in Office Systems Technology, Elizabethtown Community & Technical College, 2014
- Work Study – Nursing department, Elizabethtown Community & Technical College, 2010-2012

Personality profile, interests, etc. I am a mom of two and a fur mom of two. I enjoy hiking, watching movies, trying new foods, and napping. I love reading self-help books. I hope to travel more as my kids get older, getting out of my comfort zone is something I strive to do when able.