STATEMENT ON DIVERSITY IN THE UNIVERSITY COMMUNITY

The University of Louisville strives to foster and sustain an environment of inclusiveness that empowers us all to achieve our highest potential without fear of prejudice or bias.

We commit ourselves to building an exemplary educational community that offers a nurturing and challenging intellectual climate, a respect for the spectrum of human diversity, and a genuine understanding of the many differences—including race, ethnicity, gender, socio-economic status, national origin, sexual orientation, disability, religion, diversity of thought and political ideology—that enrich a vibrant metropolitan research university.

We expect every member of our academic family to embrace the underlying values of this vision and to demonstrate a strong commitment to attracting, retaining, and supporting students, faculty, and staff who reflect the diversity of our larger society.

Record Retention Question? The University Archives offers assistance and training resources relating to records management, including retention schedules, electronic records, organization, archiving, and destruction. Learn more >>

Need writing assistance? The writing center at the university serves the entire UofL community, including employees at UofL. They can provide feedback and support for any kind of writing: resumes, cover letters, articles, grant proposals, website text, etc. It doesn’t have to be for a UofL class or project. Find out more at louisville.edu/writingcenter.
The university follows a set of guiding principles that shape our community and our actions. Every member of the University of Louisville family is expected to follow these Cardinal Principles:

Community of Care
Let us be a University that is a Community of Care. Care for self, care for one another as the Cardinal Family and care for the community beyond. We are a community—not just a collection of individuals. We are a community—not just buildings connected by an HVAC system.

Accountability
Accountability. We keep our promises. We own mistakes. We are accountable to the team.

Respect
Respect, irrespective of position. We respect each other’s humanity and dignity, no matter what our positions in the organization are. We also respect our right to differing and conflicting positions on issues. We will be a place that prepares students for ideas, not protects students from ideas.

Diversity and Inclusion
Diversity and Inclusion. We celebrate diversity of thought, perspectives and life experiences. As our state motto declares: United We Stand, Divided We Fall. We want everyone, in the richness of all of their many unique and intersecting identities to feel included in the Cardinal fold.

Integrity and Transparency
Integrity and Transparency. We will be true to our mission of an urban research university to create, disseminate and apply knowledge. Integrity is our collective commitment to make decisions with the best interests of our university in mind and to share the decision making rationale and the outcomes.

Noble Purpose
Noble Purpose. Each of us will identify for ourselves the way in which we make a difference. We know we must solve the problems of access and affordability to give everyone the opportunity to find and pursue their own noble purpose.

Agility
Agility. We will recognize that things change and when they do, we must change things. We know that when adaptation in an organization does not keep pace with adaptation in the environment, the organization will not survive.

Leadership
Leadership. We recognize that management is a position but leadership is an activity. We will all behave as owners of the University of Louisville because we are. “We are UofL” is not just a hashtag or a slogan. It is our declaration of leadership and ownership.

Embark on your Teaching Onboarding journey at UofL

The Delphi Center’s Teaching Onboarding experience serves as a “base camp” for all who are newer to teaching at UofL. It provides a series of core teaching and learning resources, tools and strategies that are easily accessible online. This base camp experience is designed so that participants can supplement their learning with additional in-person, virtual, blended, or online professional development programs, including the Seminar on Teaching for New Faculty, the Graduate Teaching Academy, or any variety of Delphi workshops.

Resources Available Include:

- Designing a Learner-Centered Syllabus
- Teaching with Blackboard
- Teaching with UofL Technologies
- Creating an Inclusive Course Environment
- Teaching Information Literacy
- Transparent Assignment Design
- Using Student Feedback to Inform Your Teaching
- Active Learning Strategies
- Reflecting on your Teaching

Teaching Onboarding welcomes all educators, particularly those who are newer to teaching at UofL or are returning to the classroom after a hiatus.

General Information on Disclosure Requirements

Conflict of Interest
A conflict of interest (COI) is any situation that may compromise or appear to compromise a covered individual’s (employee or researcher) professional judgment in carrying out their University of Louisville (U of L) activities because of an external relationship/interest of the employee or a member of their immediate family.

Reporting External Interests & Potential Conflicts
External interests and activities must be reported on the Attestation and Disclosure Form (ADF). This includes, off campus, non-University commitments, such as lectures, speaker bureaus, or consulting activities for external entities, as well as, equity holding, board positions, and other activities or ownerships. The questions on the ADF specify what external interests to disclose and other potential COIs that are required to be disclosed. If you are unsure if you should disclose an activity/interest, it is best to disclose and provide additional information in the open text box(es).

How to Disclose
The Attestation and Disclosure Form (ADF) is the means to disclose external interests and activities. The ADF is available at http://iris.louisville.edu. Instructions for completing the form are available http://louisville.edu/conflictofinterest.

Annual Disclosure Requirement
Effective October 1, 2017, all covered individuals are required to complete an ADF at least on an annual basis. These individuals include:
- All University of Louisville Employees.
- Non-employees who are engaged in research under the auspices of U of L, regardless of compensation. This includes all individuals with a research appointment.

Managing Possible Conflicts of Interests
If you have reported disclosures, the submission will be reviewed to determine if a possible conflict of interest exists. If it is determined that your conflict requires management, an approved management plan will be developed for the COI. You will have to agree and sign off on the management plan and your Appropriate Authority will be copied on the plan. Unique COI situations are brought before the Conflict Review Board for a determination on the management, reduction, or elimination of a conflict of interest.

Intellectual Property
Intellectual Property (IP) rights will be disclosed on the ADF; however, employees with IP and/or Technology Transfer questions should contact the Office of Technology Transfer at 852-2965 or thinker@louisville.edu.

Additional information on COI’s, including FAQ’s, policies, and disclosing requirements is available on the COI Program website or contact us directly.

The primary goal of the information security compliance program is to protect the confidentiality, integrity and availability of University information assets.

Components of the program include:
- Development and communication of information security policies, standards and guidelines
- Information security awareness and Training
- Information security incident response
- Identification, assessment and mitigation of information security risks
- Support of University compliance efforts and programs related to information security

Overview
The Information Security Compliance Office (ISCO) serves as the University's resource for guidance on information security compliance and administers the University's Information Security Program. The ISCO oversees information security policies and standards; provides compliance oversight, and assessments; coordinates information security efforts, user awareness and incident response. The ISCO works in conjunction with ITS Enterprise Security, Audit Services, Institutional Compliance and officials in compliance areas such as HIPAA, FERPA, PCI and Export Controls to maintain regulatory compliance and to protect the confidentiality, integrity and availability of all University information assets.

Information Security is everyone's responsibility!
University Policies and Standards

Consistent University Information Security policies and supporting standards provide a common approach to compliance, regulatory and operational requirements and support the University in its research and academic missions. The University’s Information Security Policies and Standards were originally approved by the Compliance Oversight Council on July 23, 2007.

Policy Scope and Applicability

The University’s policies are applicable to all persons while conducting/performing work, teaching, research or study activity or otherwise using university resources. Also includes all facilities, property, data and equipment owned, leased and/or maintained by the University or affiliates.

Compliance

Failure to comply with these policies and standards and/or any related information security and/or information technology policy, standard or procedure may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment, services or relationship with the University and/or action in accordance with local ordinances, state or federal laws.

What is ‘sensitive’ information?

Information of a confidential or proprietary nature and other information that (1) would not be routinely published for unrestricted public access (2) which was provided to the university by a third party under confidentiality obligation or (3) where disclosure is prohibited by laws, regulations, contractual agreements or University policy. This includes (but is not limited to) full name or first initial and last name and employee ID (in combination), identifiable medical or health records, grades and other enrollment information, credit card, bank account and other personal financial information, social security numbers, grant reviews, dates of birth (when combined with name, address and/or phone numbers), user IDs when combined with a password, etc.

User Responsibilities

Never share or post your user password and keep security codes, keys, equipment, etc. secure

Know your data’s sensitivity level and any regulations that apply to it — handle and safeguard accordingly

Immediately notify your supervisor or the Security Compliance Office if you suspect or become aware of an incident or information breach

Never share or store ‘sensitive’ data with external parties without appropriate agreements and University approval (includes cloud storage and texting)

University and personal mobile devices (laptops, flash drives, tablets, smart phones) must be encrypted if receiving or storing sensitive data

Ensure all University and personal devices are updated with approved anti-virus software and patches

Email—always encrypt ‘sensitive’ data when sending outside of the University system by using the University’s secure email process

Work with your Tier I and follow proper sensitive data destruction procedures.

Familiarize yourself with all the University Information Security Policies and other responsibilities located at:

http://louisville.edu/security/policies
Together we can uphold our values and maintain a culture of compliance and integrity.

Speak up and report any suspicious, illegal, or unethical behavior.

(Choose at least three)

- Walk to campus & appointments! Choosing to live within walking distance will save you money and keep you fit!
- Bike for transportation! It’s a quick & easy way to get around. Get 50%-off bikeshare at LouVelo.com with @louisville.edu email!
- Get on the bus! Ride the entire TARC system FREE with U of L ID! Plan your trip at ridetarc.org or 502-585-1234
- When all else fails, carpool with others! Find/offer rides with the Cardinal Directions trip-planner: directions.louisville.edu

- Not run water unnecessarily (while shaving, brushing teeth, dishwashing).
- Boycott bottled water and drink Louisville’s award-winning tap water in reusable bottles.

- Set thermostats moderately (under 70° winter, over 75° summer) & adjust 10° when leaving.
- Set computers to sleep/hibernate when idle.
- Turn off lights & equipment when leaving.
- Unplug chargers, laptops, and TVs when not in use — even off, they draw power!
- Buy only efficient, Energy Star rated electronics and compact fluorescent or LED bulbs.

I want to be a part of the solution!

- Cut paper use in half by printing or copying on both sides = "duplexing".
- Not print emails/files unless necessary.
- Bring my own reusable shopping bags and buy in bulk. Saves money & waste.
- Use reusable mugs, bottles, utensils, & napkins rather than disposables.
- Switch to rechargeable batteries rather than toxic disposables.
- Buy pre-owned instead of new items, or new items with recycled content.
- Donate unwanted items to charities or thrift stores; or host a yard sale.
- Recycle computers, TVs & E-waste through UofL Surplus, or at 636 Meriwether Ave. (MetroCall 311). Home Depot recycles CFL bulbs.
- Safely dispose of hazardous materials (paints, chemicals, batteries, etc.) at DEHS or Haz Bin at 7501 Grade Lane.
- Recycle all types of plastic, paper, cardboard, metal, and glass — all in the same bins on campus.
- Compost organic wastes & food scraps.

- Eat more locally-grown food to improve my health, reduce carbon emissions, and strengthen our local economy!
- Seek organic, fair trade & vegetarian/vegan options to minimize abuse to the environment, people & animals.
