Frazier History Museum Internships

The Frazier History Museum offers a variety of internships in different departments, many of which are excellent fits with the English department's internship program. These areas include:

Marketing
Collection and Exhibit Curation
Multimedia and Videography
Education

The deadlines to apply for Frazier internships for each semester are:

SPRING: January 15
SUMMER: April 15
FALL: September 15
WINTER: November 15

To learn more about how a particular position might fit into the internship program in English, please contact the program director, Dr. Mark Alan Mattes (mark.mattes@louisville.edu).

To learn more about the particular placements at the Frazier, please check out the descriptions and application procedures at https://www.frazermuseum.org/internships.

Questions about particular positions at the Frazier can be emailed to info@frazermuseum.org.