

Frazier History Museum Internships

frazier

The Frazier History Museum offers a variety of internships in different departments, many of which are excellent fits with the English department's internship program. These areas include:

Marketing

Collection and Exhibit Curation

Multimedia and Videography

Education

The deadlines to apply for Frazier internships for each semester are:

SPRING: January 15

SUMMER: April 15

FALL: September 15

WINTER: November 15

To learn more about how a particular position might fit into the internship program in English, please contact the program director, Dr. Mark Alan Mattes (mark.mattes@louisville.edu).

To learn more about the particular placements at the Frazier, please check out the descriptions and application procedures at <https://www.fraziermuseum.org/internships>.

Questions about particular positions at the Frazier can be emailed to info@fraziermuseum.org.