The Kentucky Historical Society (KHS) is proud to announce an internship opportunity for the Fall 2024 Academic Semester!

The Research and Publications team is searching for an enthusiastic student currently enrolled at College or University for the Fall 2024 Academic Semester. Pursuing a bachelor's degree or higher in history, museum studies, public history, library sciences, or related field.

Research and Publications Interns will work to gain experience and knowledge about working for a large research institution that has a broad reach. Interns will also work to fulfill the mission of the Kentucky Historical Society (KHS) and assist their supervisors throughout the organization succeed. The Research and Publications Intern will serve on a collaborative team that facilitates the creation of Kentucky history by making research materials accessible. The team also elevates what we know about Kentucky history by creating content and providing key publishing platforms for researchers, historians, and genealogists.

The Research and Publications Intern will:

- Processes research files for the library
- Fulfill research requests
- Digitize historical documents and images
- Assist with exhibit research and public interpretive displays
  - Assist with content for The Register of the Kentucky Historical Society, KHS's quarterly, peer-reviewed journal

The complete Position Description is attached.

This is an approximate 240-hour internship rewarding two stipend installments of $1800 after successful completion of 120 working hours each for the grand total of $3600. While the official start date and schedule is negotiable between supervisor(s) and candidate(s), internship must be completed by December 31st, 2024.

Applicants should submit a cover letter and current resume including three references via email to KHSVolunteer@ky.gov. No telephone calls are accepted. Deadline for submissions is the close of business on Wednesday, July 31, 2024.