

Thumbprint Consulting Internship
(1 position in Fall & 1 position in Spring)

Thumbprint Consulting, a local consulting agency in Anchorage, KY, is looking for someone with technical and business writing experience and interests to serve as an unpaid grant writing intern. During your time with Thumbprint, you will develop technical writing skills, grant location skills, client relations skills, communication skills, and the ability to synthesize information into a completed product. You will have the opportunity to work with clients in the for-profit and non-profit sphere in a diverse set of areas such as healthcare, renewable energy, addiction recovery, ambient technology, and more. The opportunity would likely be 10-15 hours per week, and the intern could work remotely or in office in Anchorage, KY.

Please email the English Department Internship Program director, Dr. Mark Alan Mattes (mark.mattes@louisville), if you're interested in learning more about this position and the internship program.
