

CODRE report to the Faculty Senate Meeting on Sept 1, 2021

During July and August, major CODRE activities included:

1. CODRE Chair and Vice Chair met with the President who provided guidance and clarifications for changes in our bylaws and committees. This expanded reorganization effort is a work in progress.
2. The President (to whom CODRE reports) approved a name change from Commission on Diversity and Racial Equality to Commission on Diversity and Racial Equity.
3. CODRE's Campus Wide Listening session for September is tomorrow Wednesday Sept 1 at 11:30am. This can be accessed from the CODRE tab on the UofL website. The next listening session will be on October 6 with Topic of "Work/Life Balance."
4. CODRE's Newsletter goes out monthly to the campus community on the website, through email and in UofL Today. The September edition will go out next week.
5. CODRE continues to work with the Vice Present for Diversity and Equity, Faye Jones' office, in developing the CARA document.
6. CODRE continues to host monthly General Body and Commissioner only meetings on the 2nd Thursday of each month.

Respectfully submitted,

Patrick D. Harris, PhD
Professor of Physiology, School of Medicine
CODRE representative to the Faculty Senate
