

Committee On the Status of Women Report to the Faculty Senate

Wednesday May 1, 2024

- COSW Commissioner applications have closed and the nominations committee is in the process of selecting the next cohort of commissioners.
- Elections will open soon for COSW Vice Chair, Vice Chair of Administration, and two at-large members.
- COSW joined CODRE for their last listening session, “Lost in Legislation” reflecting on the learnings and lessons from the last legislative session. CODRE and COSW will share the feedback with the president, as well as develop next steps in response.
- The COSW RRR Committee has continued to work with the faculty senate on the part-time faculty project, supported by the Office of Institutional Effectiveness. Quantitative and qualitative data have been collected and are currently being analyzed.
- A reminder that COSW still has individual and group sponsorships available. Learn more here.

Respectfully submitted to the faculty senate by Senate Representative to COSW, Olfa Nasraoui on May 1, 2024.
