

Pharmacy Initiatives Updates

Jessie Morgan
March 6, 2018

Pharmacy Updates

5 Initiatives

Custom Formulary Updates-March 1 outreach began

Enhanced Clinical Program-edits in place begins

April 1, 2018

Utilization Management-edits in place begins April 1, 2018

Saveon Program-outreach begin in February 2018, implementation date 4/1/18

Safeguard Program-UofL enrolled, all paperwork completed and begins 4/1/18

Pharmacy Updates

Livongo Initiative

Livongo meter-state of the art, connected monitoring
Test Strips and Lancets –no charge to the patient and not subject to quantity limits
Overall savings to U of L- $73,344 (net of rebates)
Personalized medicine-diabetes care
Will offer to all patients with diabetes, who are on our insurance plan
Will utilize as an incentive to enroll employees in the Diabetes-Disease Management Program
May 1 target implementation date

Pharmacy Updates

Implementation Outlines

March 19—Preventive Screening talk for the Disease Management Participants

March 21—Meeting with Retirees Board of Directors

April 26—Preventive Screenings Available at no cost to UofL employees enrolled in healthplan at Well-A-Rama

May 18—Participate in Wellness Fair at ULP
(preventive screenings)

Pharmacy Updates

Education Initiatives

March 2018

Informational blurb- how to use healthcare resources wisely and save you money (UofL, ULP, UMC)

Insomnia Tips (UofL)

Lung Cancer (ULP & UMC)

Understanding your healthcare-Definitions

Want to Quit Smoking(UofL)pending

April 2018

Seasonal Allergies

Adherence Tools—Apps for your Smartphone

Proper Inhaler techniques

Providing “tweets” to GHN program

Pharmacy Updates

Long Term Strategies

Rite Aid/Walgreens Conversion

Education directed toward retirees

Increasing enrollment in Disease Management programs

Tracking progress of program implementation

Creation of Educational programs based on needs of the UofL population(pharmacy & disease focused)

Continue to monitor specialty drug spend and track emergence of biosimilars on the market

Continue to monitor utilization of preventive services