

JEFFERSON COMMUNITY AND TECHNICAL COLLEGE

PRESIDENTIAL/CEO SEARCH

The Kentucky Community and Technical College System (KCTCS) seeks an entrepreneurial, innovative and visionary leader to serve as the President/CEO of the Jefferson Community and Technical College in Louisville, KY. This leader will be responsible for achieving the student success, workforce readiness and campus transformation goals needed for JCTC to be a world-class community and technical college. This position will build upon and create partnerships with other higher education institutions, employers and the community.

THE SYSTEM AND THE COLLEGE

KCTCS, the largest provider of post-secondary education and workforce training in Kentucky, is a statewide community college system with 16 colleges and more than 70 campuses across the Commonwealth. Jefferson Community and Technical College (JCTC) is one of the 16 colleges. JCTC enrolls 18,000 students on annual basis, has 6 campuses (3 in metro Louisville; 3 in adjacent counties) and serves Workforce clients with customized programs.

THE POSITION

KCTCS and the Board of Directors of Jefferson Community and Technical College (JCTC) seek a visionary educator with an outstanding record of entrepreneurial and strong leadership and accomplishments, to serve as the next college president. The college president reports directly to the KCTCS President. The president works closely with the JCTC Board of Directors and Foundation Board, comprised of a well-connected and engaged group of community leaders desirous of developing a top-in-the-country performing institution in student performance and community outcomes. The President is responsible for all aspects of the college's operation throughout the service area and represents the college at the local and state levels.

OUR MISSION

We open the door to quality education that promotes the economic and cultural vitality of our community, encourages all to discover and achieve their potential, and provides opportunities to turn dreams into realities.

OUR VALUES

The College values an environment that encourages:

- Learning
- Accountability
- Diversity
- Celebration
- Innovation
- People
- Continuous Improvement
- Vision

OUR VISION

Jefferson Community and Technical College will become an environment of hospitality and creativity where individual lives and human community can flourish through access to quality-driven, learner-centered education.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS

1. An earned Doctorate from an accredited college or university or equivalent executive leadership experience
2. Senior-level executive experience in higher education, with preference given to community or technical college experience
3. An approachable person of high integrity and energy, with a track record of building successful teams, inside and outside the organization.
4. Proven fundraising experience

APPLICATION PROCESS

Applicants will submit for review the following: 1. A current vita with cover letter addressing characteristics and qualifications; and 2. A list of five professional references, including names and telephone numbers (both home and business). The review of applications will begin June 7, 2015. Nominations and applications will be accepted until the position is filled.
