

Accreditation Policy for the School of Interdisciplinary and Graduate Studies

Official transcripts showing all degrees awarded and all undergraduate and graduate work completed at every accredited college/university previously attended must be furnished by the degree-seeking applicant. The minimum requirement for admission is the baccalaureate degree or its equivalent from a regionally accredited institution. Students applying with a baccalaureate or an advanced degree from a nationally accredited institution will be considered at the discretion of the admitting unit with approval via a variance request to the Vice Provost for Graduate Affairs.

Regional accrediting agencies include: Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools (MSA), North Central Association of Colleges and Schools (NCA-HLC), Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU), New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC-CIHE), Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS), The Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC-ACSCU), and The Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC-ACCJC)
