Arts and Sciences Research Office and School of Interdisciplinary and Graduate Studies

The Grant Writing Academy is designed to assist graduate students in developing knowledge and skills in grant writing. One of the primary goals of the Grant Writing Academy is to remove the intimidation of writing grants by demystifying the process.

The Grant Writing Academy is scheduled on the following Thursdays from 11:30am-1:30pm in Shumaker 139. You are expected to attend at least 6 of 7 sessions. Lunch will be served.

January 8, 2015

All graduate students are encouraged to apply. In addition to completing the application form and interest statement, students are required to have a faculty mentor, graduate program director, or chair send an e-mail to the Dean of the School of Interdisciplinary and Graduate Studies, Dr. Beth Boehm (beth.boehm@louisville.edu), indicating approval of the student's participation in the academy.

Participation in the Grant Writing Academy will be limited and competitive. Graduate students who are accepted into the academy, attend at least six of seven sessions, and complete an academy grant application, will be entered into a drawing for a dissertation completion fellowship, as well as have a milestone line for their transcript.

Applications will be available online at <http://louisville.edu/graduate/plan> in November, 2014.
