

Mentoring Women Graduate Students

Panel Sponsored by UofL's School of Interdisciplinary and Graduate Studies

---

Panelists:

Shanice Hudson

Doctoral Fellow, Department of Pharmacology and Toxicology

Gavin Arteel

Professor and Vice Chair for Research, Department of Pharmacology and Toxicology

Tara Schapmire

Assistant Professor, Interdisciplinary Program for Palliative Care and Chronic Illness

Anna Faul

Professor and Associate Dean of Academic Affairs, Kent School of Social Work

Keri Mathis

Doctoral Candidate, Department of English

Beth Boehm

Professor, Department of English; Dean of SIGS; Vice Provost for Graduate Affairs

Debra Journet

Professor Emerita, Department of English

Moderated by:

Laura Matravers

Doctoral Candidate, Department of English

Michelle Rodems

Associate Director, Graduate Student Professional Development

Please join us for a conversation about mentoring with current and recent women graduate students and their faculty mentors, who will discuss their experiences establishing and developing successful mentoring relationships.

WHEN

Friday, April 13, 2017
2:00-3:30pm

WHERE

Shumaker Research Bldg
Room 139
(Belknap Campus)

CONTACT

Laura Matravers
Lsmatr01@louisville.edu

REGISTER

louisville.edu/graduate/plan