Blackboard at UofL

Aimee Greene
Assistant Director, Instructional Design and Technology
Delphi Center
What is Blackboard?
6,000 – 7,000 Course Shells Created Every Semester
How Does UofL use it?

Purely Online Courses Are Designated as Section -50, -51, etc
What are the benefits?
What will you be doing with it?
Welcome to your Institution Page

Bb News

Visible to users: Everyone

Please note: Normally you will select "Past", "Current" and "Upcoming Courses" on the Courses page to see your courses in those timeframes. However, there is an issue with the process that places courses in their respective timeframes. For the time being all courses on the system will appear in "Current". Please use the star located to the right of each course card to move your current courses to the top of your course list. This issue is being addressed. We apologize for any inconvenience.

Attention: All Users

Blackboard was successfully migrated to SaaS (Software as a Service). We are also pleased to announce that Blackboard (Bb) was released early to the university community. To learn more about the new version in regard to the log-in screen and process, as well as site navigation, please watch these introductory videos:

Virtual tour for instructors: https://uofl.me/2JLSyip
Happy Monday!

Posted on: Monday, December 4, 2017 8:33:19 AM EST

Reminders:
If you have not already done so you should turn in the zip file of your module to Blackboard by the end of the day tomorrow (Tuesday). Also turn in your participation form by the same deadline. Follow the directions in week 15 to create the zip file. If you need me to create your exe file I will do so and email you the file to put on LiveText. Please let me know if you have any questions at all.

Thanks!
Aimee

Reminders
Posted on: Monday, November 27, 2017 12:38:39 PM EST

All: Here are a few reminders as we close out the semester:
1. Last class tomorrow evening
2. Don’t forget to turn in Participation form we discussed on the first night of class. I will use this information along with my observations to inform your participation grade. It is due the same time as your HAT- 12/5 by the end of the day.
3. HAT due 12/5 by end of day- see week 15 folder for instructions.
See you tomorrow evening!
Classroom Trainings:

What GTA’s Need to know about Blackboard

Wednesday, August 22
10:00 – 11:30
OR
2:30 -4:00

Grade Center Basics and Beyond

Friday, August 23
1:30-3:00

Delphi Center Lab
2nd Floor Ekstrom Library
Where do I go from here?

- You will be able to successfully navigate in a Blackboard course
- You will be able to grade assignments within the Grade Center
- You will be able to demonstrate his ability to load a file or document into Blackboard
- You will be able to identify and use the functions within the Control Panel
Delphi Website:  http://www.louisville.edu/delphi

Blackboard:  http://blackboard.louisville.edu

Register for the Bb Training

http://louisville.edu/graduate/forms/plan-workshop-registration-form

Other Questions

Aimee Greene (Delphi Center)
aimee.greene@louisville.edu
852-4482