EMILY MAIDEN: CELEBRATING 11 YEARS OF FULBRIGHT

With October almost in our rearview mirror, I am happy to say that it's already shaping up to be another great year in the Office of National and International Scholarship Opportunities. For 11 years now, Dr. Patricia Condon, Fulbright Program Advisor, has led the UofL Fulbright charge! Early last week we finalized an impressive 28 applications. Our candidate pool represents graduating seniors, graduate and professional students, and alumni across the University—from medical biology to musicology. The applications are for 20 countries on five continents, including Spain, Mongolia, Brazil, Norway, Tanzania, Korea, and Croatia.

As any of our candidates can attest, the Fulbright application process is a grueling mental marathon and only the fittest of the fit cross the finish line. However, thanks to our Office, you don't have to be alone for a single step of the journey. Under the leadership of Dr. Condon, we provide workshops, application examples, faculty mentorship, and a stringent final review process-- all designed to make your application the absolute BEST it can be! We congratulate all our candidates for submitting strong applications and look forward to hearing the initial results from the National Review Committee in January.

Aside from Fulbright, this fall our Office was proud to support candidates for THREE of the 'Big Brit' Scholarships. UofL's Rhodes candidate is Clayton Coleman, a former UofL swimmer who is currently serving as a Fulbright ETA in Cyprus. Two Honors students have applied for the Marshall Scholarship, which provides two years of funding for graduate programs in the U.K.—Patrick McClure and Brittany Hubert. Finally, Patrick is reprising his role as a Gates-Cambridge Scholarship candidate; this year he hopes to bring home PhD funding as his prize. We should know the preliminary results of these competitions soon.

Check The Current for information about upcoming scholarship opportunities. Up next: English-Speaking Union, Critical Language Scholarship, Goldwater, and Boren. Stop by the Office for more details or email me at emily.maiden@louisville.edu. ❁

WALK-IN ADVISING!

Priority registration is quickly approaching (Friday, November 1)! If you have not yet made an appointment with an Honors advisor, we have a limited number of availabilities remaining prior to October 31, so please check your GradesFirst campaign email for the link to schedule an appointment before they're all gone! If you have any trouble with accessing GradesFirst, please feel free to contact the front desk of the Etscorn Honors Center at 502-852-6293 to request an appointment this way instead. We will not be able to schedule any new appointments for priority registration after Wednesday, October 30.

We will be holding Walk-In Advising on October 31 and November 1 from 8:30-11:30 AM and from 1:00-4:00 PM in the Etscorn Honors Center in Threlkeld Hall on a first-come, first-served basis. These meetings are for quick questions and last-minute concerns. They will not be full-fledged advising appointments and are only intended to provide short conversations to make changes to one's Honors classes or other such brief concerns.

GRADUATE SCHOOL SPOTLIGHTS

Are you interested in attending medical, law, or dental school?

If this describes you, the Honors Program would like to invite you to our Graduate School Spotlights. At these events, you can get an inside look into the admissions process of these University of Louisville programs. You'll be able to:

- Meet with admissions and current students.
- Learn what it takes to be competitive.
- Participate in a question and answer session.

Light refreshments will be served. Contact Ketti Tonnemacher in the Honors Program at aktonn01@louisville.edu if you have any questions about these spotlights.

HSC WELCOMES YOU TO FALL-O-WEEK!

- Monday, October 28: Honors Movie Night featuring Children of the Corn and Paranormal Activity
Take a break this month with HSC. Food, drinks, and a mini movie marathon will be the study break you've been longing for ALL semester. Join us starting at 5:30 PM in the Etscorn Honors Center classroom. You can come late or leave early.
- Tuesday, October 29: Honors Fall Party
Come join us for fall-themed events, games, and a costume contest! Festivities begin at 7:00 PM in the Etscorn Honors Center. Prizes to winners and food for everyone.
- Thursday, October 31: Reverse Trick-or-Treat with Family Scholar House
If you've already RSVPed to Morgan Blair, remember to meet at Etscorn Honors Center at 4:30 PM to carpool.

HSC NEEDS YOUR INPUT!

We want you to help us bring YOU an event that YOU want. So here's the deal: we are asking you to nominate your favorite professor (from any department) to be a candidate for our Last Lecture Series.

Is this professor inspiring and invigorating? Does this professor captivate your attention? If you answered yes, then we would love for you to email us their name by October 31. During the first week of November we will send out a finalized list of the nominated candidates and have a vote to decide which professor will be selected.

Send your nominations to Alyssa Mattingly, HSC VP of Academics, at almatt11@louisville.edu.

STUDY TIPS!

Midterms have passed, but there is still plenty of work to be done! Make sure to take plenty of breaks while you study and pace yourself. Studies have shown that spacing out your learning is much more effective than cramming it all in one sitting.

Check out the REACH website:
<http://reach.louisville.edu/tutoring/>
You can schedule individual tutoring, join tutoring groups, and check information for SI sessions. It's never too late to reach out for studying assistance!

HONORS VOLUNTEERS PROGRAM

Throughout the academic year, the Honors Volunteers Program (HVP) plans and participates in a wide variety of volunteer service activities. HVP would like to invite you to the following upcoming activities:

- The next HVP Meeting will be held in the Etscorn Honors Center on November 7 from 12:20-12:50 PM.
- Join HVP's English Conversation Club at the Iroquois Branch of Louisville Free Library. The is held on November 23 from 3:00-5:00 PM, but students can carpool from Threlkeld at 2:30 PM.

Email Morgan Blair (the leader of the Honors Volunteers Program) at msblai03@louisville.edu to learn more about HVP, to be added to the listserv, or to RSVP for any of HVP's events.

THE WHITE SQUIRREL

The White Squirrel invites you to submit your poetry, prose, and art submissions now through November 1! Submission Guidelines for Fall 2013 are available at <https://orgsync.com/51648/chapter>.

Spring 2013 editions are available in the Etscorn Honors Center, Sunergos on South Preston, Carmichael's bookstores, and online at <https://gumroad.com/l/EJmr>. Support your fellow students and the literary community for just $3!

BARRY M. GOLDWATER SCHOLARSHIP

Calling all STEM students, consider the Barry M. Goldwater Scholarship and Excellence in Education Program (for research-focused students in the STEM disciplines).

This scholarship funds the undergraduate study of college students who intend to pursue careers as high-level scientists, researchers, mathematicians, and engineers. This prestigious award opens many doors for its winners. SOPHOMORES and JUNIORS with an established record or research in their field and a high GPA should consider applying.

NOTE: Interested STEM students should make an appointment with Emily Maiden BEFORE the end of the semester to meet with Dr. Condon! Contact Emily at 502-852-1515 or emily.maiden@louisville.edu OR just stop by the Office of National and International Scholarships, located in the Honors Overseers House.

For more information see: <http://www.act.org/goldwater/index.html>

The application will be available online starting November 1, 2013.

National deadline: January 28, 2014

FROM OUR FRIENDS

RED BARN SCHOLARSHIPS

The Florence M. Strickler Endowment is in honor of the wife of Dr. Woodrow M. Strickler, the President of the University of Louisville during the founding of the Red Barn in 1969, who is affectionately known as the “First Lady of the Red Barn”.

The Torchbearer Endowment was created through the efforts of Dr. Dennis C. Golden, who served as Vice-President of the University of Louisville. Four $400 scholarships are awarded annually through this endowment.

The Essie Jenkins Torchbearer Endowment was established in 1999 through the Torchbearer Program. Beginning with the 2008 Spring Semester, one $400 scholarship will be awarded in her honor.

The Bridgette Pregliasco Torchbearer Endowment honors Dr. Bridgette Pregliasco, Assistant Vice President for Student Life from 1995 to 2002, and was established in 2001 through the Torchbearer Program to provide financial resources for adult students. Four $300 scholarships are granted through the ACCESS Office,

Paper Applications are available in the Red Barn Programs Office. Please visit <http://louisville.edu/studentactivities/redbarn/scholarships.html/> for scholarship cover letters, electronic applications, and more information.

QUIZ BOWL

Did you play quick recall or academic team in high school? Do you have a wide range of knowledge?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, you should consider joining the University of Louisville Quiz Bowl team. The Quiz Bowl team competes in tournaments throughout the state and region. The team is open to all University of Louisville students regardless of major and year. Last year, the team won both divisions of the Kentucky Collegiate Quick Recall League and also finished 12th at the NAQT Intercollegiate Championship Tournament. At ICT, the UofL team defeated national powers Cornell, Minnesota, Notre Dame, Ohio State, and Chicago. Tournaments are on the weekend and we typically practice once a week. Practices are scheduled around team members' class schedules. If you are interested, please email team coach/sponsor Matt Church at mschur01@louisville.edu or find our Facebook group, U of L Quiz Bowl.

REACH

REACH provides academic services and specific support programs to enable students to better prepare and adapt to college life and to enhance their academic skills and performance in college courses. For more information about REACH and the programs it offers, call the Learning Resource Center (502-852-7516), visit <http://reach.louisville.edu>, or email lrcutor@louisville.edu.

MCAT Review Tutoring

Are you interested in Medical School? The Learning Resource Center in Strickler Hall, Room 107, is offering FREE MCAT review sessions for University of Louisville students only! # REACH AMBASSADORS

The REACH Ambassadors would like to invite their first-year mentees to a special event on Wednesday, November 6 from 12:30-2:00 PM in Strickler Lobby.

Students can attend the event to make bracelets for the goodie bags at the Kid's Center "Cards for Kids" Fashion Show. This is a great service opportunity and a chance to interact with your REACH Ambassadors! Free food and drinks provided.

Student Success Seminars

Based on the First Year Initiatives 2013 Book-in-Common, This I Believe, the REACH Student Success Seminars this year will help you think critically about what you believe it takes to be a successful college student. Each seminar will not only have you rethink the beliefs and assumptions you hold regarding the strategies you currently use, but also about new strategies you have yet to use.

LEONARD CASSUTO LECTURE: THE ACADEMIC JOB MARKET

The academic job market is a monolith that looms over the lives of most graduate students, but part of the reason it's so imposing is because it seems so inscrutable and impenetrable. Higher education scholar and journalist Leonard Cassuto will explain the role of the market in academic culture of our time and what it takes for graduate students to search for jobs with informed confidence.

All faculty and students are invited to this lecture on November 14 in room 139 of the Shumaker Research Building. The lecture will be from 3:00-4:30 PM, with a reception to follow from 4:30-5:30 PM. For more info, and to RSVP, visit <http://louisville.edu/graduate/plan/calendar/the-academic-job-market.ics/view>.
