

Stay Current

COMING UP

- 1/26 Housing Application Opens
- 2/1 KHR Proposal Deadline
- 2/2 Kurz Application Deadline
- 2/10 NCHC Proposal Deadline

REMINDERS

HAVE YOU SCHEDULED YOUR HONORS ADVISING APPOINTMENT?

All current Honors students should have received their email from Kirsten Armstrong with a link to schedule a GradesFirst appointment for this semester. If you did not receive the email please contact us ASAP. Also, don't forget: If you didn't get a confirmation email you don't have an appointment in the system. Make sure you got a confirmation email!

THIS WEEK IN HONORS

HONORS IS GOING TO ITALY! FALL 2016 WITH DR. JOHN HALE APPLICATIONS DUE MARCH 4

Want to go to Italy? Next semester's Overseers' International Travel Seminar is going! Apply to take "The Roman Empire: Science, Technology and Infrastructure" with Dr. John Hale and travel over the winter break! The criteria and application are available on our website.

NEW HONORS SEMINARS COMPLETE LIST AVAILABLE ONLINE

Looking for upper-level electives? Honors' interdisciplinary seminars for Fall 2016 are now listed online! There are a lot of exciting offerings for next semester, taught by great professors! Check them out, and talk to your advisor about signing up at your scheduled appointment: <http://bit.ly/1Sjakyw>

HONORS CONFERENCE DEADLINES ARE FAST APPROACHING SEE THE LAST ISSUE OF THE CURRENT FOR FULL DETAILS AND DEADLINES

Honors conferences are a great way to get practice presenting your research. Don't miss this valuable opportunity. This year we are hosting the Kentucky Honors Roundtable Conference (KHR) HERE at UofL! Which makes it an easy option for those who don't have time for travel. Represent our program and UofL with your great work. Have a paper, presentation, or project you've done for a class? Talk to your advisor about turning it into a conference presentation soon!

ISSUE 10 / JANUARY 27, 2016