CALL FOR HONORS CONFERENCE PROPOSALS

KENTUCKY HONORS ROUNDTABLE

We are proud to announce that UofL will be hosting the Kentucky Honors Roundtable (KHR) Conference in Spring 2016! All Honors students are invited to submit a proposal. This conference will be held Friday and Saturday, February 25-26 on our very own campus. If you have something you'd like to present at KHR or any other upcoming Honors conference, now is the time to begin considering your proposal. Conference presentations can focus on a variety of topics, including: research you've conducted at the undergraduate level, papers you may have written or presentations you've developed for class, a topic that you are passionate about and for which you'd like to develop a presentation, or your role in an Honors organization. If you have another idea that doesn't fit these areas, please contact an Honors counselor to see if it could work for a conference presentation. If you'd like to get some information on conference presentations that have occurred in previous years, please contact our conference coordinator, Luke Buckman (luke.buckman@louisville.edu).

If you would like to submit a proposal for KHR, please email the following to Luke:

THEN AND NOW: 2012 TRAVEL SEMINAR ALUMNI REUNITE

While current Honors students were traveling to New Zealand and the Philippines this past December, a small group of Honors alumni gathered to reminisce on their 2012 travel seminar to London. Honors Fellow, Dr. Michael Johmann, and Honors advisor, Ketti Tonnemacher, coordinated a trip at the time to expand on the seminar: Crime in Victorian Popular Culture. Sixteen students immersed themselves in Victorian London; going on Jack the Ripper and Charles Dickens walking tours, seeing Woman in Black on stage, visiting the Tower Bridge, and exploring the Sherlock Holmes museum (among other ventures.)

While three years had passed since the group's journey, listening to the alumni talk about their adventures made it sound as if the trip might as well have happened yesterday. Beyond the echoes of "I wish we were all there now," the group pulled memories out of one another and reveled in their old inside jokes. Admitting their jealousy of the current travelers, the alumni hoped the students would have an experience as impactful as their own. Travel seminars go beyond a trip together, creating bonds that are easily renewed no matter how much time has passed.

THE WHITE SQUIRREL VOLUME XII IS HERE!

Write up by Adeline Wilson

Co-Editor of The White Squirrel

Fourth Year, MAJOR(S) MINOR(S)

Last month, we hosted the release party for Volume 12 at McQuixote Books & Coffee. This edition of The White Squirrel was our biggest yet. For the first time, we printed an annual volume, with works from spring and fall 2015. In addition, we opened submissions to the public. The White Squirrel drew submissions from across the Commonwealth, and six Kentucky universities are represented in this volume. The December release party was a testament to how much the magazine has grown since 2008. Thanks to our section editors, event planners, and marketing team, we pulled off a fantastic celebration of the writing community at the University of Louisville.

Pick up your copy of The White Squirrel in the Etscorn Honors Center or McQuixote Books & Coffee for $8. Digital and print copies may also be ordered online at <https://gumroad.com/thewhitesquirrel>
