Article X: Amendments

- A. One or more voting members of HSC may author an amendment to this constitution.
- B. The amendment shall be submitted in writing or electronically to the Executive Council for review.
  - a. A vote shall be held by the Executive Council. If the amendment receives a majority vote among the Executive members, then the amendment shall be presented at the next HSC general meeting.
  - b. The amendment is officially approved by a simple majority vote of the members in attendance at the general meeting. In the event of an exact tie, the amendment shall fail to be passed.

Article XI: Probation/Impeachment

- A. Probationary Trial: In the event that a member of HSC is not fulfilling their duties as outlined in this constitution, one or more members of the Executive Council may present a case with evidence as part of a probationary trial, to be held at the next Executive Council meeting after discussion with the Faculty Advisor.
  - a. The member-of-interest has the right to defend themselves in front of the Executive Council. If the member-of-interest cannot be present at the Executive Council meeting, it is the responsibility of the Executive Vice President to meet with the member-of-interest and portray their case at the meeting
  - b. In the event that three-fourths, or 75%, of the entire Executive Council agrees that the member-of-interest has not been fulfilling their role as a member, that member-of-interest will be placed on probation.
  - c. The Faculty Advisor(s) will not be present at a probationary hearing; the probationary hearing is solely the responsibility of the Executive Council.
- B. Probation:
  - a. A person placed on probation shall be ineligible to run for any position in the HSC Executive Council in the following academic year.
  - b. If duties are performed or issues are resolved within two months of the probation being issued, the probation may be lifted. This will be discussed and decided upon by the Executive Council within the two-month time period, with probation being lifted after a majority agreement of the Executive Council.
  - c. If the member-of-interest does not remedy the issues that resulted in the probation after the two month period, the Executive Council may move to impeach and remove the member-of-interest following a majority vote of the Executive Council.
- C. Impeachment and Resignation:
  - a. Resignation: If an Executive Council member decides that they are unable to fulfill the necessary roles of the position, they may resign.
    - i. If deciding to resign, then the Executive Council member must notify the Faculty Advisor and president via email or in person.

- b. Attendance Policy Breakage: In the event that a member becomes eligible for removal based on Article VIII: Attendance Policy, the Executive Council must discuss the removal of that member from HSC at the next Executive Council Meeting.
  - i. This member shall be formally removed from HSC following the discussion and a majority vote from the members present at the Executive Council meeting.
  - ii. If a member is not removed from Council after the vote, the member shall be subject to immediate removal following the next unexcused absence in that semester.
  - iii. Alternative Action Clause: In the event of extraordinary circumstances, the Executive Council may determine alternative action, to be decided up during the course of the discussion.
- c. Unanimous Impeachment Clause: If a unanimous decision is made by the other members on the Executive Council, a member may be impeached for egregious actions or negligence and removed from HSC, immediately bypassing the probationary period.
- d. Vacancies: If a position is left vacant due to impeachment, resignation, or any unanticipated reason then all members of Honors Student Council will be eligible to seek out the role, following Faculty Advisor approval.
  - i. One week following the impeachment or resignation, the Executive Council members will interview and appoint the most qualified candidate to fill the role for the remainder of the academic year.
- d. If no council member seeks out the role, then the Executive Council will notify the all students within the Honors Program of the open position. Applicants will be interviewed and appointed at the discretion of the Executive Council.

Article XII: The BAMS Clause

- A. In the years in which HSC decides to hold a Book and Media Sale (BAMS) or other large-scale philanthropy event, they reserve the right to create a Philanthropy Bubble, with its own Vice President(s), the duties of which should be decided via Council majority vote.
