

M.A. PROGRAM IN HUMANITIES

Department of Comparative Humanities
University of Louisville

- ▶ The Humanities MA at U of L presents a focused and flexible curriculum and the possibility to choose among three career tracks:

Interdisciplinary Humanities

For students oriented toward scholarly or creative interdisciplinary work, who might consider pursuing graduate studies at the doctoral level.

Linguistics and the Humanities

For students with an interest in understanding both language structure and language's mediating role in society and the arts through rigorous, interdisciplinary coursework in linguistics, language sciences, and the humanities.

Public Humanities

For students interested in bringing the ideas of academic debate into the public sphere. It is ideal for professionals, as well as for students interested in our joint degrees: JD/MAHUM program (in collaboration with the Law School) or MA/MBA program (in collaboration with the School of Business).

- ▶ The Program requires 30-33 credit hours of coursework and can be completed in one and a half years, with a Directed Study Project as a final product, or in two years, with a final thesis.
- ▶ A part-time study option is available for working students.
- ▶ No GRE required.

Visit our website: louisville.edu/humanities/graduate/ma.

For more information about the program or about the admissions process, please contact: humma@louisville.edu