

PEER EDUCATION REFLECTION ACTIVITY

Fair Minded thinkers practice considering a problem thoroughly and with an open mind.

Answer the following questions using the critical thinking skills intellectual STANDARDS:

- Be Clear! Can you state what you mean? Can you give an example?
Be Accurate! Are you sure it's true?
Be Relevant! Is it related to what we are thinking about?
Be Fair! Am I considering how my behavior might make others feel?

1. The clear purpose of the information covered in this week's class sessions is....
2. The most important conclusions I have come to from this week's classes are...

I know these conclusions are accurate because....

3. The important concept I learned in this week's classes is...

This concept is relevant to me because (implications)...

4. The connections between important concepts from this week and the concepts I have previously learned are....

These connections are relevant to peer education at UofL because...

5. If I do not consider the information in this week's classes, as a fair-minded thinker, some important implications for myself and others are....