

2017 Special Events

Nov. 13 - 17 International Center Exhibit

Ekstrom Library – East Side, Exhibit daily during Library Hours
Learn about the history of the International Center

Monday Nov. 13 (2:00-3:00 pm) “End of the Semester Travel Question and Answer”

As part of the Graduate Student Appreciation Week the International Student and Scholar Services will have a session to answer travel questions. Dessert, coffee, hot chocolate, and raffle prize.

Tuesday, Nov. 14 (12:30-2:30pm) International Luncheon, Health Sciences Campus

CTR Building, Room 124, Co-Sponsored by Office of Graduate & Postdoctoral Studies, International Student & Scholar Services

Wednesday, Nov. 15 (3:00-5:00pm), Immigration Workshop – Current Trends and Outcomes

Shumaker Research Building, Room 139,
Co-Sponsored by J. Gregory ClareLaw Offices & International Student & Scholar Services

Thursday, Nov. 16 (12:00-1:00), International Luncheon

Bigelow Hall- Room 131G –Miller Information Technology Center, Co-Sponsored by the Dean of the Students Office & International Student & Scholar Services

Thursday, Nov. 16 (6:00-9:00pm), Salsa Night, Red Barn Celebrating the Diversity of our International Students and Scholars

Hosted by American International Relations Club (AIRC)

Friday, Nov. 17 (6:30 - 9:30 PM), Thanksgiving Dinner

Red Barn, hosted by Organization Assisting & Serving International Students (OASIS)

All the events are free and open to students, faculty, and staff

