WHO IS A J-1 EXCHANGE VISITOR?

Research scholars
They are individuals primarily conducting research, observing, or consulting in connection with a research project. Research scholars must have been awarded at least a Bachelor’s degree, and they can be in the U.S for a minimum of three weeks and a maximum of five years. They may also teach or lecture if allowed by sponsoring department.

Maximum stay: 5 Years

Professors
They are individuals who primarily teach, lecture, observe, or consult at a postsecondary educational institution while in the United States. Professors must have been awarded at least a Bachelor’s degree, and they can be in the U.S for a minimum of three weeks and a maximum of five years. They may also conduct research if approved by sponsoring department.

Maximum stay: 5 Years

Short-term Scholars
They are normally individuals who are professors or researchers in their country of residence who are coming to the United States for a short-term visit for the purpose of lecturing, observing, consulting, participating in seminars and professional activities. Short-term scholars must have been awarded at least a Bachelor’s degree.

Maximum stay: 6 Months

Non-Degree Students
Non-degree students pursuing research in their field of study in their home country.

Maximum stay: 24 months

louisville.edu/internationalcenter/isss
It is critical that international scholars and students maintain their legal status while in the United States. Please visit the International Student & Scholars Service’s (ISSS) website at www.louisville.edu/internationalcenter/isss

Please review the Exchange Visitor Program Welcome Brochure from the Department of State

Scholars and students must be aware of and comply fully with these guidelines.

Click here to visit Exchange Visitor Program Welcome Brochure
Objectives of Being a J-1 Scholar

The U.S. State Department requires you to pursue your original objective for coming to the United States. As an exchange visitor, therefore, you are normally not allowed to change your category, and you are expected to carry out the activity in the field described in section 4 of your DS-2019.

Coursework

A J-1 research scholar, professor, or short-term scholar may study. You may to take classes for credit, but research or teaching must remain your primary activity. If you should decide to become a full-time student as your primary objective, it would be necessary to change to a student immigration status. Also, you may not accept a graduate assistantship unless you are on a J1 or F1 student visa.

Change of Host Department

It is sometimes possible to change to a different sponsoring department if your primary objective remains the same. The ISSS office must approve such a change. Please consult the ISSS office if you are considering any change in your original program or site of activity.

For additional information please visit the following websites:

Department of State:  www.state.gov
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services:  www.uscis.gov

louisville.edu/internationalcenter/iss
Your spouse and children who are under the age of 21 may apply for a J-2 dependent visa status to accompany you to the United States. You must provide proof of financial ability which covers their expenses and they must maintain the required insurance coverage mandated by the Department of State.

The University of Louisville requires a minimum of $5,000 additional funding per year for each accompanying dependent.

Obtaining a J-2 visa for dependents

If your sponsoring department has informed us that your dependents will be accompanying you to the U.S. under the J1 Program, we have completed a DS-2019 for each dependent that was listed on the request form. This will allow them to apply for a J-2 visa when you apply for your J-1 visa.

If you arrive in the U.S. alone and your spouse and/or a child(ren) decide to join you later, you may request a DS-2019 form for your dependent(s) from our office. Please submit the completed Dependent Request along with a copy of their passport and proof of sufficient funding. Please allow 3-5 days for processing of their DS-2019 forms.

Upon their arrival, you should send copies of their visa page, I94 information and proof of purchase of the three insurances required by the Department of State to barbara.jones@louisville.edu.

NOTE: Your dependent may come to the U.S. in an independent immigration status such as F-1 (student), H-1 (temporary worker) or even as an independent J-1 if he or she qualifies for that particular status.
When your J-1 program ends, the J-2 status ends as well.

If you travel outside the U.S. and leave your dependents in the U.S., you must return within a reasonable amount of time or the J-2 will be considered to be out of status.

J-2 dependents are required to maintain the same Department of State’s insurance coverage as J-1 visa holder.

J-2 dependents may apply for work authorization through U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services. Instructions for applying are available here.

If you or your family travel outside the U.S., they will need a DS-2019 form that has been signed within the last 12 months of your/their return, a valid passport (valid 6 months) and, in most cases, a valid J1/J2 entry visa in order to return to the U.S.

The J-2 dependent may apply for a change from J-2 status to any other nonimmigrant status or immigrant status if the conditions for that status are met, and if he/she is not subject to the two-year home residence requirement (212e).

The 212e applies to J-2s if the J-1 has that restriction.

Children that are of school age (5-17) will be eligible to attend the Jefferson County Public School (JCPS). You should contact Berta at Jefferson County Public Schools at (502)485.3623. For additional information visit the JCPS website is: http://www.jefferson.k12.ky.us//
HEALTH INSURANCE

- You are required to have the mandated Department of State’s insurance requirements in effect for yourself (J-1) and any dependents (J-2) by the start date of your program and for the complete duration of your program.
- Some paid U of L employees may be eligible to purchase their medical insurance through the university. Should you purchase the university’s medical insurance you may only select EPO or PPO to meet the Department of State insurance requirement.
- University insurance does not include repatriation of remains and medical evacuation. You will need to purchase these policies from an outside carrier.
- Others may need to identify options to purchase insurance. Please review the list of recommended companies in the next slide.

Minimum Insurance Coverage – Insurance must provide the following coverage:
1. Medical benefits of at least $100,000 per person per accident or illness
2. Repatriation of remains in the minimum amount of $25,000
3. Expenses associated with medical evacuation in the minimum amount of $50,000
4. Insurance requirements should not have a deductible that exceeds $500 per accident or illness

Maintenance of Insurance – Willful failure on your part to maintain the required insurance for yourself or any J-2 dependents throughout your stay in the United States will result in the termination of your exchange program.

Your proof of purchase and summary of your insurance coverage for you and any J2 dependents must be submitted to the barbara.jones@Louisville.edu upon arrival and no later than the start date of your program. Proof of insurance is also required to be submitted with any future DS2019 extension requests.
HEALTH INSURANCE

Where To Find Insurance Information?

There are many insurance companies that offer the appropriate policies which you are free to select. The following websites are those companies that students and scholars at U of L buy from most frequently. Please go to their websites to review their policies and cost. Read the policy information carefully and don’t be afraid to ask questions before you buy.

Insurance agents

An agent is an individual who represents one or several insurance companies and sells insurance to individuals and groups. When working with an agent you should feel free to ask questions and take the time to learn about and understand several choices before you make a decision. If you are uncertain or confused, don’t sign anything.
These are important documents that you need to have upon arrival:

- Passport
- DS-2019 Form
- I-94 Form
- VISA

Additional documentation recommended:
- Evidence of financial resources
- Letter of acceptance as a participant in the Exchange Visitor Program
- Paper receipt of payment for the SEVIS I-901 fee
- Name and contact information for your sponsoring organization, including a 24-hour emergency contact number.

Always hand carry your documents during your travel.

Your passport must be valid for at least six months in advance at all times during your stay.

Link to obtain your I-94 form upon your entry into the United States: https://i94.cbp.dhs.gov/I94  louisville.edu/internationalcenter/iss
Before you travel outside of the U.S. with the intention to re-enter under your J1 Program, you must obtain a travel signature from an international advisor at the ISSS. The travel signature is valid for 12 months.

Upon arrival to the U.S., please print the I-94 form for J1 and any J2 visa holders. These may be obtained from https://i94.cbp.dhs.gov/I94
Before traveling to the U.S.

- Have a valid passport
- Apply for entry visa
- DS-2019 form (J-1 scholar and student)
- SEVIS Receipt for I-901 fee

Arrival to the initial port of entry in the U.S.

- Complete a Customs Border Protection Declaration Form
- Go to Inspection area for Customs and Border Protection
- Declaration form to CBP officer (luggage may be inspected)
- Pick up your luggage at carousel
- Exit or connect to your next flight

You may or may not need a Secondary Inspection

louisville.edu/internationalcenter/isss
You may enter the U.S. as early as 30 days prior to the start date listed on your DS-2019. However, you are not allowed to begin working until your start date listed on your DS2019 has arrived.

You must depart the U.S. within 30 Days from the end date listed on your DS-2019. The end date listed on your DS-2019 is the last day you are allowed to work in your department.

You should be leaving the U.S. by the 30th day unless you have applied for a change of status with Immigration. Please note that travel outside the U.S. and return during during this grace period is not allowed under the J-1 Program.
J-1 research exchange visitors: Employment opportunities are restricted. Unless you have received approval from the ISSS, you may only be employed by your sponsoring department at the University of Louisville, and in the specialized field described on the DS-2019.

On-Campus Restrictions
A student assistantship is not appropriate employment for a J-1 Research Scholar, Professor, Short-Term Scholar or Student Intern.

Off-Campus Opportunities
It is possible to receive payment or reimbursement of expenses for short-term activities such as lecturing, consulting or conducting a seminar in your field at another institution with PRIOR approval from the ISSS office.

Procedures for approval to add a second site of activity
- You must provide the ISSS office with a letter that is on the companies letterhead and signed by the supervisor from the institution where you wish to lecture, consult, etc., describing activity, dates of employment, amount of compensation and how this work supports your current objective listed on your DS2019.
- Your UofL departmental supervisor must notify the ISSS via an email with their approval of this additional work opportunity.
- The ISSS office will provide the scholar with a new DS-2019 listing your second site of activity.

Unauthorized Employment
Unauthorized employment can lead to termination of your J-1 program participation. Because of the many employment restrictions, it is important to be sure before you come to the U.S. that you will have enough income for yourself and any dependents that accompany you.

J1 student non-degree: Students are allowed to work on campus for up to 20 hours a week during fall and spring term and full time during the summer. They must contact the International Student Advisor PRIOR to working to complete the necessary paperwork, receive approval and a Social Security Application if being paid.

ISSS must be consulted concerning any outside employment.
Obtaining Your Social Security Card

- You must complete the online orientation and submit copies of your immigration documents and proof of insurance PRIOR to applying for your Social Security Card. This will allow the ISSS to validate your SEVIS Record which is required to give the Social Security Office access to your immigration record. Going earlier may cause a delay in the processing of your card.
- To obtain a Social Security application form and additional information go to louisville.edu/internationalcenter/isss/life-uofl/social-security.
- PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY ON THE FORM and complete all sections. The address you provide on the form will be the address used to mail your Social Security Card so be sure to provide a complete mailing address.
- You will need to take your passport/visa, I-94 and DS-2019 form with you to the Social Security Office along with your completed application. Be sure that your SEVIS record has been validated prior to going.
- J1 students must also have a letter from their employer and a letter from ISSS prior to going to the Social Security Office.

HOURS AND DIRECTIONS TO SOCIAL SECURITY OFFICE

Social Security Office is on the first floor in the Gene Snyder Building located at 601 West Broadway at the north side of the intersection of 7th Street and Broadway in downtown Louisville.

Office Hours are Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Fridays 9 am - 4pm and Wednesdays 9 am-12:00 (noon). It is best if you do not go during the 12:00 – 2 pm as they are very busy during lunch hours. They are closed on most national holidays.

Telephone: 1-800-772-1213
www.socialsecurity.gov

louisville.edu/internationalcenter/isss
Obtain Travel Signature Prior to Departing the U.S.: Scholars and their dependents should obtain an international advisor’s signature in the Travel Validation by Responsible Officer section on their DS-2019 form prior to traveling outside the U.S. if you are intending to return to the U.S. under the same J-1 program. Once you have obtained a travel signature, it is valid up to one year. Signatures are not required for travel within United States.
Transferring to another U.S. Institution

If you wish to transfer to another U.S. institution under your current J1 Exchange Visitor Program, you must receive transfer authorization prior to leaving the University of Louisville:

- Scholars should notify their current supervisor AND the ISSS international advisor before transferring within the University or to another institution.

- If you are transferring to another institution, you will need to complete and submit to the ISSS a completed “Transfer Out Form” that can be obtained from: http://louisville.edu/internationalcenter/isss/j-1/scholar-forms-and-documents

- The International Advisor at the new institution must contact the ISSS and confirm the scholar’s start date, position is the same objective as listed on the DS-2019 and provide their SEVIS Program Number.
Change Of Status

As described previously, being subject to the two-year home residence requirement greatly limits your possibilities for changing to another status. If you are not subject to this requirement, or if you were subject but obtained a waiver of this requirement, you may apply for a change to any other status for which you are qualified.

Procedures for a change of status vary depending on the type of status you wish to obtain. A change of status must be applied for before your J-1 status expires.

If you leave the U.S. and return in another status, this is not considered a change of status but a start of new program.

http://louisville.edu/internationalcenter/isss/documents-and-forms/change-of-status/view

Beginning A New J1 Program

Twelve-Month Rule for most J-1 categories
If you have been a J-1 exchange visitor under the Research Scholar or Professor Categories for more than six months, you cannot return to the U.S. using these same categories until twelve months have passed from the end of your previous J program. The time is calculated according to your entry and departure dates. It is not necessary for you to spend the twelve months in your home country or even outside the U.S. This regulation applies to J-2 dependents as well.

Two-year Bar Individuals in the J-1 Research Scholar or Professor category have a two-year bar on repeat participation in those categories. This bar applies to anyone in one of the two categories. The bar becomes effective when your program as a Research Scholar or Professor becomes inactive. This regulation applies to the J-2 dependent as well.
