KENT SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK AND FAMILY SCIENCE

louisville.edu/kent

Founded in 1936, the Kent School of Social Work prepares students to work in a society with complex social problems and needs. Rapidly becoming one of the top research social work programs in the country, the school is able to provide current research information in the preparation of its students for work with individuals, families and communities.

The Kent School offers four degree programs: Bachelor in Social Work, Master of Science in Social Work, Master of Science in Couple and Family Therapy and Doctor of Philosophy in Social Work. Our BSW and MSSW are offered on campus and online. Additionally, our MSSW program offers seven optional specializations: Alcohol & Drug Counseling, Gerontology, Mental Health, Military Social Work, Psychosocial Oncology, School Social Work and Leadership, Management and Supervision. There are also opportunities in our MSSW program for Dual Degrees in Couple & Family Therapy, Pan-African Studies, Women & Gender Studies, Law, Divinity, and Healthcare Ethics.
