

Kent School Student Association Emergency Fund Application

The Kent School Emergency Fund is a one-time award to students who find themselves in a financial crisis. This award is considered on a case by case basis by a three-person committee. Applying for funds does not guarantee an award will be granted to the applicant. The maximum award is $350. The funds will be disbursed to the applicant's HigherOne account. This means the applicant must have a zero balance with the University to receive the funds. Upon submission of a completed application and appropriate documentation, an award can be made in approximately 7 days.
