

Campus Visit of Renowned Author and Producer Gustavo Arellano

3 Free Presentations: October 14, 2015

Advanced Screening of Bordertown

12:00-1:00pm

Shumaker Research Building, Room 139

Bordertown is a new animated TV series by executive producer Seth MacFarlane (Family Guy) and scheduled to premiere in January 2016 on FOX. Mr. Arellano is one of the consulting producers for the series. Official Trailer

Ask a Mexican about ¡Ask a Mexican!

2:00-3:00pm

Shumaker Research Building, Room 139

Gustavo Arellano, author of the syndicated column ¡Ask a Mexican!, which uses humor to tackle serious issues involving immigration, labor and Mexican culture in the United States, will give a presentation about the history of his controversial column, from questions to methodology, to lightning round.

14th Annual Latin American and Latino Studies Heritage Lecture

El Sur Shall Rise Again:

How Latino Immigrants are Saving the South

4:30-5:30pm

Elaine Chao Auditorium, Ekstrom Library

This lecture will focus on how Latinos have changed the South over the past 20 years, based on the stories of Mexican restauranteurs in Louisville that Mr. Arellano has documented in oral histories for the Southern Foodways Alliance. His books include ¡Ask a Mexican! (2008), Orange County: A Personal History (2008), and Taco USA: How Mexican Food Conquered America (2013), all published by Scribner. He is also the editor of the OC Weekly, an alternative newspaper in Orange County, California, and a lecturer in Chicano and Chicana Studies at California State University, Fullerton. Books will be available for purchase.

Co-Sponsors: Commission on Diversity and Racial Equality (CODRE), the Liberal Studies Project, the Cultural Center, and the Latin American and Latino Studies Program.

UNIVERSITY OF
LOUISVILLE
COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES

Latin American & Latino Studies