

GROWING UP GLOBAL:

THE OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES OF IMMIGRANT & REFUGEE YOUTH

Muhammad Ali Center

144 N. Sixth Street, Louisville, KY 40202

Saturday, February 6th

11am to 4pm

Join the Muhammad Ali Institute at UofL and the Muhammad Ali Center for an event to examine youth migration issues at the international, national, and local levels. We hope to provide youth with an opportunity to share their perspectives and concerns and to identify solutions. The event features:

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 11-12:30pm | Two Documentary Film Screenings about Migrant and Refugee Youth (limited seating available) |
| 12-1:30pm | Food and Information Tables |
| 1:30-4:00pm | Youth Panel and Interactive Group Discussions |
| 11-4:00pm | Kids Area |

This is a community celebration of Louisville's compassion and diversity. Entrance to the event and the Muhammad Ali Center is free with a donation of youth-related items and open to the public.

Suggested donations: School supplies (notebooks, folders, backpacks, highlighters, calculators, markers, crayons, scissors), school uniforms, alarm clocks, personal hygiene items, diapers, blankets, cleaning supplies, dishes, shower curtains & and rings. Donations will be given to La Casita Center, Catholic Charities, and Kentucky Refugee Ministries.

you belong.

This event is supported by the University of Louisville Hispanic/Latino Initiative and Latin American and Latino Studies.

For more information contact Erika DeSha at (502) 852-6372 or email at erika.stith@louisville.edu