This course will focus on a wide array of contemporary fiction by Latin American women writers. Students will discuss short stories from various sources, including the textbook Short Stories by Latin American Women: The Magic and the Real. Short stories will be analyzed within an historical, social, and political context, as well as the literary movements of the 20th and 21st centuries to which they pertain.

Dr. Carmen Montañez is a Professor of Spanish and Puerto Rican author of novels, short story collections, and critical essays. Dr. Montañez received her MA from the University of Louisville and her PhD from the University of Kentucky.

For more information about this course, please contact Dr. Montañez at carmen.montanez@louisville.edu or Dr. Rhonda Buchanan at rhondabuchanan@louisville.edu.
