

SPAN 323: SPANISH IN THE WORKPLACE

The goal of this course is to provide you with the tools you need to interact in a professional manner with individuals in a business setting. All lessons will exclusively be given in Spanish. Students will be exposed to multiple real-life scenarios which will incorporate speaking and writing activities. In addition, there will be assignments to enforce and strengthen listening and reading skills.

Topics: Healthcare, Criminal Justice, Business

Taught as part of the 2020 Study Abroad Program in Panama

For more information, contact Professor Berta Calvert
(berta.calvert@louisville.edu)

